HUBBUCK'S PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT.

White Zinc Paint made by Hubbuck's Patent Process completely resists the Atmosphere of large Towns, Brigs Water and Gas under every form

THE Suspension Bridge over the Thames at Oving Cross was painted in 1853 with Zinc Paint made by this Process, and in 1857 the Company's Inspectors state—"It is found to have completely resisted all Atmospheric and other influences the iron work being thoroughly protected the Paint is as perfect as when the work was finished. It incontrovertibly establishes the applicability of ZINC PAINT to outdoor work."

ADULTERATION.—Several Paint Grinders have been selling Zinc Paint adulterated with Sulphate of Barres, some even to the extent of thirty per cent. No workman can produce good work with such material. Those who have once used the Patent Zinc Paint will never willingly use any other Paint for their best work.

CHEAPNESS.—Not only is it cheaper per hundredweight, but two hundredweight of this Paint, with six gallons of Oil covers as much surface as three hundredweight of White Lead and twelve gallons of Oil.

Each cask is stamped HUBBUCK LONDON PATENT

Inferior Zinc Paint so marked having been sold in Foreign markets, the Patentees offer a reward of Fifty Pounds for information which shall lead to the conviction in an English or Colonial Court of those who have painted their mark. It is to be observed that the sellers are also liable to prosecution.

THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON,

White Lead Oil Paint and Varnish Works 24 Lane Street London

Among the tests to which it has been subjected has been that of painting the hold of a sugar cask, which after a voyage to St. I. & back found after washing, to be as white as the first day the paint was applied.—John Bull September 14 1850

Certificate of the Survey of the Iron Ship Thomas Hamilton.

GOSWICK 7th August 1850

GENTLEMEN.—Object in writing to you is to call attention to the state of the frames and plating of the iron ship Thomas Hamilton. This vessel when built eight years ago was coated inside and outside with your Zinc Paint. The recoating has never been renewed.

From the reports on other ships I received since I was led to fear that both the plates and rivet heads might be aged and decayed by the ship having had frequently sugar cargoes home from India and Malacca from the West India line.

When the ship was open to view and left for the inspection of Lloyd's Surveyors in London, my pleasure was to learn the surprise of those gentlemen Messrs. RICHARDS and LLOYD to find that both the frames, plates and rivet heads were as good as the day on which they were coated when the ship was building. In fact, to use the expressive words of the Surveyor nothing could be better.

The reason of the plates, rivets and frames were no doubt good originally but the high state of preservation I attribute to having had them coated with your Zinc Paint.

Yours Messrs. HUBBUCK and SON London

I am Gentlemen yours very truly

THE safest and best remedy is that marvellous remedy known as CHLORODYNE which was discovered by Dr J. Collis Browne M.R.C.S.L. (Ex Army Medical Staff) and the SECRET OF ITS RECIPE CONFIDED ONLY to J. T. DAVENPORT pharmaceutical chemist 33 Great Russell street Bloomsbury square who is the sole manufacturer. Medical testimony furnished by the highest authorities in Military, Naval and Civil practice and numerous gratifying statements from the public generally establishes this property as invaluable. It relieves pain, soothes the system, inducing refreshing and soothing sleep without producing or leaving any unpleasant effects like opium and may be taken at any time in a few drop doses.

Extracts from the General Board of Health London as to its efficacy in Cholera—3rd Stage or Collapse—In all cases restoring the pulse. So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

From Dr. Andrew Smith, Director General Army Medical Department— I have seen it used and apparently with much advantage.

From W. Vesalius Pettigrew M.D.— I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an antispasmodic and sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhoea and other diseases and am perfectly satisfied with the results.

From Dr. M. Millman of New Galloway Scotland— I consider it the most valuable medicine known.

Dr. McGrigor (of late Army Staff) says— It is a most invaluable medicine.

Dr. Gibbon Army Medical Staff Calcutta— 'Two doses completely cured me of Diarrhoea.'

A SAFE AND CERTAIN REMEDY FOR COUGHS, Colds, Hoarse-ness, and other Affections of the Throat and Chest. In Inflammation, Consumption, Asthma, &c. they are unfailing. Being free from every hurtful ingredient, they may be taken by the most delicate female or the youngest child.

Extract from a letter recently received from New Zealand

"Auckland N.Z. Nov 18 1878

"A lady to whom I gave some of your invaluable Cough Lozenges and likewise several members of her family who were troubled with severe coughs and colds (especially the youngest child who had a hard croupy cough) have experienced great relief and speak of them in the highest terms. One of my children too who was troubled in a like manner has taken them with the greatest advantage. On account of their pleasant taste, children will readily take them, when they will not take other medicines. I may add that the lady above referred to informed me that she had frequently purchased them when residing in India, of Messrs Treacher & Co Bombay.

Copy of a letter from the late Col HAWKES, (the well known Author on "Guns and Shooting" "Landscape &c. near Whitehurst House."

"Sir, - I cannot resist forming you of the extraordinary effect it has experienced by taking only a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough for several weeks that defied all that had been prescribed for me and yet I got completely rid of it by taking about half a small box of your Lozenges which I am the only one that relieves the cough with in a few days of the stomach or dig a sore organ - I am Sir your humble servant,

ADJUSTMENT OF THE CALENDAR

Julius Caesar was the first to attempt to adjust the length of the year with any degree of accuracy and fixed it at 365 days 6 hours introducing a day at intervals of four years (called Leap Year) which accordingly consists of 366 days, while the three others have only 365 days each.

From then it was called the Julian Year and it continued in force till the year 1582 when Pope Gregory XIII. undertook to rectify the error which then existed between the Julian year of 365 days and the solar year of 365 25223013 days. At that time the difference amounted to ten days. He accordingly commanded the ten days between the 4th and 15th October in that year to be struck out, so that the 4th day was called the 15th. This alteration has been introduced throughout Europe except in Russia and by the Greek church and the year was afterwards called the Gregorian Year or New Style.

In England the method of reckoning after the New Style was not admitted into the Calendar till the year 1752, when the error amounted to nearly 11 days, which were taken from the month of September by making the 3rd of that month the 14th and it was settled by Act of Parliament (24 Geo. II. 1751) that the years 1800 1900 2100 2200, 2300, and every hundredth year of our Lord which shall happen in time to come shall be computed as each consisting of 365 days only except in every fourth hundredth year whereof the year 2000 should be the first. By the same Act of Parliament the Legal beginning of the year was changed from the 24th of March to the 1st of January so that the succeeding months of January February and March up to the 31st day which by the Old Style would have been reckoned part of the year 1752 were reckoned as the three first months of 1764 which is the reason we sometimes meet with such a date as—

that is, according to the Old Style it is 1774 according to the New 17 5

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES

Golden Number	2	Dominical Letter	D
Epoct	11	Roman Indiction	6
Solar Cycle	24	Julian Period	6576

The Solar Cycle or Cycle of the Sun is a period of 28 years after which all the Dominical Letters return to the same order as they did during the 28 years before. The first year of the Christian Era was the 14th of this Cycle.

The Lunar Cycle, or Cycle of the Moon commonly called the Golden Number and sometimes the Metonic Cycle, (from Meton an Athenian who invented it about 433 years before the Birth of Christ,) is a revolution of 19 years in which time the conjunctions, oppositions, and other aspects of the Moon are within an hour and a half of being the same as they were on the same days of the months 19 years before. The prime or Golden Number is the number of years elapsed in this Cycle before the Birth of Christ 3 years of this Cycle had elapsed.

The Roman Indiction is a period of 15 years used by the Romans for the time of taxing their provinces. Three years of one of these Cycles had elapsed before the Birth of Christ.

The Julian Period contains 7980 years and arises from multiplying together 28, 19 and 15 being the Cycles of the Sun, Moon and Indiction. This was contrived by Joseph Justo Scaliger in 1583 for Chronological purposes and is assumed as a fixed era in calculations by all Astronomers and Chronologists throughout the Christian world. Its beginning is placed 716 years before the usual date of the creation of the world, or 4714 before the commencement of the Christian Era.

When there are two letters together the first is for January and February the second for the rest of the year. In a line with the month in the second part of the table find the dominical letter of the year and down the same column with the letter find the day of the week and the figures on the left give the day of the month. Thus for the Sundays in Sept. 1863 Opposite 1863 is the 3rd Col. is D in the 5th. In a line with Sept. find D and descend the column to "Sun" —on the left is 6, 13, 20 and 27 the required dates

OBSERVATIONS ON THE TIDES

The waters of the ocean are observed to rise and fall by a regular daily movement of flux and reflux. These periodical oscillations are occasioned by the difference of the attractive forces exercised by the sun and moon on the solid parts of the earth* and on its surrounding oceans, which produces two flood tides or high waters, and two ebb tides or low waters in the time between two consecutive passages of the moon over the meridian that is, in the course of a lunar day of 24 hours 50½ minutes; hence the mean retardation of the tides from one day to another is 50½ minutes on the solar time. But this interval is subject to irregularities which depend principally upon the moon's angular distance from the sun. Again the mean interval between two successive flood tides is 12A. 25m. but the intermediate low water does not take place always in the middle of the interval:—in many places, and especially in narrow seas and bays, the tide takes considerably more time to fall than to rise.

The effect of the action of either the Sun or the Moon on the waters of the sea is the production of a wave which follows the luminary westwards. The height of the wave produced by the sun is considerably less than that of the one raised by the moon. The periods of these waves about the globe corresponds with the solar and lunar days respectively. And sure they concur at the syzygies, they are 90° apart at the quadratures, and hence, the lunar tide then occurs at the time of the low water of the solar tide; thus the highest tides must occur soon after new and full moon when the forces of both luminaries act in the same direction; and the lowest tides about the quadratures, when the height of the lunar wave is diminished by that of the solar wave,—the luminaries then acting at right angles. The former are called Spring and the latter Neap tides. Between the conjunctions and quadratures the effect of the solar tidal wave is more or less to increase or diminish the height of the lunar tidal wave. The heights of the tides also vary with the declinations and distances of the luminaries, the greatest tides occurring when they are nearest, and pass most nearly vertically over the place of observation. The distance of the moon has always a marked influence on the height of the tides, and it varies in the ratio of 59 to 111. Also, the highest tides occur at the equinoxes when the moon is in perigee and very near the equator and the lowest at the solstices, when the moon is in apogee and has the greatest declination. Moreover the higher the flood tide rises, the lower the ebb falls.

The agitation of the sea caused by the wind only affects its surface to an inconsiderable depth whereas the tide wave affects the whole depth of the oceans nearly equally from the bottom to the surface. In shallow seas its action on the bottom is often very violent, but it diminishes in an inverse ratio with the depth. The currents which form the wave run most rapidly at the times of flood and ebb but the times of most rapid rise and fall in the tide, are those of "slack water" when the currents at the place cease, because they then begin to set on to, or out from the place equally in opposite directions. The velocity of the tidal wave also varies inversely with the depth,—running with the greatest rapidity in deep open seas, the height and force of the wave increasing as the rate of advance diminishes with the gradual shoaling of the bottom and the approach of the shores. It has been remarked that the retardation of the tides is not equable but is much greater when the moon is in quadrature than at the syzygies. In fact the tidal day at the times of conjunction and opposition is really about 56 minutes shorter than at the times of the quadratures and it is only at the octants that the tidal day is equal in length to the lunar day. This variation in the intervals between the tides is called the lagging or pruning of the tides according as they fall behind or before the mean time of return. The tide day at new and full moon, is thus about 24hrs. 35min., and at the quadratures it is 23hrs. 25min. nearly now the moon's mean motion from the sun is about 50½ minutes in a day and the smallest retardation, about the times of conjunction is nearly 35 minutes. Hence, if M denote the moon's disturbing force in producing the tides, and S, the sun's,—we have, by a known proportion,—

$$M : S :: 35^m : 50\frac{1}{2}^m - 35^m \quad 226 \quad I \text{ nearly}$$

Or since the tide day near the quadratures is about 23hrs. 25min, the lunar day being 24A. 50½m. we have thus,—

* Whilst this is passing through the press I learn that Professor Wm Thomson has published a paper on the rigidity of the earth, shewing that it must be greater than that of steel or glass because, if not, it would yield so much with the movement of the oceans, that the difference in the heights of the tides would be hardly perceptible. This gives an additional interest to tide observations, especially such as are calculated to shew whether the bi-monthly tides exert any extraordinary influence or not.

M S 25^A 25^m—24^A 25^A 25^m—24^A 50^h^m or 2 40 1, nearly

Moreover since the retardations at the syzygies and quadratures are respectively 35^m and 85^m, we have also—

$$M-S \quad M+S \quad 35 \quad 85$$

and hence— M S 85 + 35 85—35 or 2 4 1

Lastly at the octants, that is, when the lunar and solar day are equal the moon's elongation has been observed to be about 12° 30' hence also by a known theorem—

$$\frac{R}{M} = \sin 2 \epsilon \text{ (} \epsilon \text{ elongation) } = \sin 25^\circ = \frac{1}{2.144} \text{ nearly}$$

The ratio of the disturbing forces, as obtained by these different methods is nearly the same; and it agrees very closely with other calculations from data independent of the phenomenon in question. Mr Adams finds the moon's equatorial horizontal parallax to be 3422".325, and Encke fixes the sun's at 8.5776; and if we employ these and Laplace's value of the mass of the earth, with each of the four ratios above we find the moon's mass from the above ratios to be—

$$\frac{1}{79.2} \quad \frac{1}{79.8} \quad \frac{1}{79.6} \quad \text{and} \quad \frac{1}{6.4}, \text{ respectively}$$

Now M Damoiseau in his Theory of the Moon, employs the value $\frac{1}{79}$ as derived from the theory of the Precession of the Equinoxes, with which the average of the above values agrees very remarkably. Mr Bailly however gives the ratio of the mass of the moon to that of the earth as $\frac{1}{79.46}$, and more recently Mr Adams, from M Peters's value of the Nutation, finds the moon's mass $\frac{6}{143}$ of the earth's nearly*. From this it is inferred that the ratio of the forces of the sun and moon in producing the tides, can scarcely be less than that of 1 23 (or 5 11) nor greater than that of 1 2.6 (or 6 13). This however only corresponds to the mean intensities. The disturbing action of the luminaries varies in the inverse triplicate ratio of their distances. Therefore if the ratio 1 2.2, as being derived from some of the more recent determinations, be taken as the mean value of this ratio we have the following extreme values—

	M	S
Apogean	0.9505	1.8575 or 1 1.45 nearly
Mean	1	2.2
Perigean	1.0512	2.6822 or 1 2.46 nearly

Hence the ratio may vary from 0.9505 2.6822, or nearly 1 2.72, to 1.0512 1.8575 or 1 1.77 nearly. It must be remarked however that this supposes both the sun and moon to be together on the equator which can never happen for any length of time.

From the mean ratio, just derived, we infer that the mean height of the spring tides is to that of the neap tides nearly as 2.2+1 2.2-1 or as 8 3,—more nearly as 139 52 from the observations at Great Laplace deduced the proportion of 136 to 62, or nearly that of 7 to 3,—which, with the other constants already employed would give $\frac{1}{79}$ for the Moon's mass. Elsewhere he again finds, from more numerous observations, the proportion of the solar and lunar forces to be 1 2.35328, whence the relative heights of the spring and neap tides would be inferred to be as 57 to 23 nearly and the moon's mass $\frac{1}{74.94}$ of that of the earth which agrees better with theory.

Owing to the position of the Continents, the phenomena of the tides is still farther complicated. In each of the three great oceans partial tides are produced which combining with the tidal wave from the Southern Ocean (where alone it can circulate freely round the earth) run to the North-West until they are destroyed or broken up by the interfering islands and continents. The effect of the coasts is evidently such that, were the action of the luminaries suspended the tide wave would probably be entirely confused and broken up by the time it had performed a single revolution. Hence any tide may be considered as principally dependant on the actual position of the sun and moon at the time and every variation in the disturbing force is propagated in the successive tides and may be noted at every port it reaches,—but later at each, according to the longer time required to reach it, and latest in those seas which like the German ocean, have a pretty high latitude and are much shut out by land from the great bays. Thus the highest spring tide is not the one which immediately follows the conjunction or opposition of the luminaries, since it frequently requires a day or a day and a half, to reach the port the highest tide on the southern coasts of India, at the Cape of Good Hope and St. Helena, accordingly is the second after new and full moon on the coasts of Spain, France, and the West of Ireland it is the third; and at London and the ports of the German ocean, it is the fourth after the syzygy which is the highest. The interval occupied between the moon's passing the meridian and the occurrence of the tide which follows either syzygy at the time of the equinoxes, when the Moon is at her mean distance from the earth has been called the Establishment of the Port. The Establishment of the Port, then, is the retardation of High Water on the time of the moon's meridian passage at the time of an equinoctial syzygy. Thus the Establishment of the Port of London is 2 hrs 7 min. It is a constant of the greatest importance in the computation of the times of high water and can only be accurately ascertained by long continued and careful observations at each port.*

* In some recent publications the value of the moon's mass is given even as small as $\frac{1}{7}$ but owing to the want of facilities for reference in Bombay I have been unable to determine on what authority it rests. Indeed, so difficult have I found it here to obtain access to ordinary works of reference that I have been obliged to confine myself for constants entirely to the books in my own possession.

It is not necessary here to enter into the analysis by which the formulae for the calculation of the tides have been deduced. Laplace, in his Mécanique Céleste (tome II p 289) has given a formula for the time of high water which is essentially the same as the following—

$$\begin{aligned} \tan 2(h - \lambda) &= \frac{m \cos^2 \Delta \sin 2(h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)}{m^2 \cos^2 \Delta + \frac{m}{r} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)} \\ &= \frac{\sin 2(h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)}{\frac{m r^2 \cos^2 \Delta}{m r^2 \cos^2 \Delta + \cos 2(h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)}} \end{aligned}$$

In which m represents the mass of the sun
 r the distance of the sun from the earth
 Δ the sun's declination
 h the sun's hour angle

and the same letters with a dash the corresponding quantities with reference to the moon λ and λ being constants to be determined for each port from the observations. For the height of the tide the formula is—

$$H = B \left\{ \frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda) + \frac{m}{r^2} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda) \right\}$$

B being a constant determined by observation at the port.

In higher latitudes the declinations of the luminaries might be neglected without causing any very great error but not so for ports in tropical latitudes.

When from sufficient observations the values of λ and $\lambda - \lambda$ have been carefully determined the tides for a port may be computed with very considerable accuracy

The mean value of $\frac{m}{r^3} = \frac{5}{M}$ has already been shown to be about $\frac{1}{32}$ or probably not less than $\frac{1}{32}$ and since the distances, horizontal parallaxes, and angular diameters of the same body have constant ratios,—putting P for the Horizontal parallax and d for the Semidiameter we have—

$$\frac{m}{r^3} = \frac{m P^3}{m d^3} = n \frac{d^3}{d^3}$$

Taking $d = 961'' \cdot 82$, the sun's semidiameter according to Airy and

$$\frac{\sin d}{\sin P} = .273114 \text{ according to Adams.}$$

* The value employed for the Establishment, in the calculations made at the Colaba Meteorological Observatory in Bombay is 11^h 20^m; but this does not agree with observation in the harbour—the Establishment for the harbour is probably about 11 hrs 48m. or 11^h 20m.

$$\text{And } \frac{m^2}{m^2} = \frac{2}{254936 \times 163} \times \left(\frac{61.43}{8376}\right)^2 \times \frac{4900734^2}{d^2}$$

$$= \frac{1409876 \times 4900734^2}{25971861 d^2} = 239244 \frac{d^2}{d^2}$$

To tabulate these results—

$$\text{Put } A = \log 239244 \frac{d^2}{d^2},$$

$$A = \log \frac{\cos^2 \Delta}{\cos^2 \Delta},$$

$$\text{and } \log A = A + A -$$

then the formula for the time of high water becomes—

$$\tan 2 (h - \lambda) = \frac{\sin 2 (h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)}{A + \cos 2 (h - \lambda - \lambda + \lambda)}$$

These may now be reduced tables of the following form—

The hour of the passage of the Moon over the meridian of a port may be easily found thus Let H the hour of the passage of the moon over the Meridian of Greenwich, from the Nautical Almanac, and l the longitude of the port expressed in time. The hour A of the Moon's Southing at the place will be—

$$A = H \pm 2^m 1 \times l$$

The reduction is positive or negative according as the longitude is west or east.

For Bombay we have,

$$l = 4^h 30' \text{ and } A = H - 16^m 2 \text{ in Bombay time}$$

Were the constant quantities λ and $\lambda - \lambda$ determined with accuracy from sufficient observations for the port of Bombay we should be able to test the correctness of the above formulae and tables, which would probably be found to give results within the limits of error in the observations * From above 9000 observations at the London Docks Mr. Dension, upwards of 30 years ago, found the above theory to represent the observations with great accuracy

In the tables used at the Colaba Meteorological Observatory in Bombay the value of the moon's mass employed is $\frac{1}{70.1}$ which as has been already shown, is certainly too large the value of A is assumed as constant, and equal to 3.60—these being almost identical with the values determined by Laplace from the observations of the tides at Brest, and published in the Mémoires de l'Académie for 1818, but as which he remarks,—
Je ne puis garantir l'exactitude de cette valeur de la masse lunaire et j'incline à penser que les phénomènes astronomiques sont plus propres à la fixer The mass established for high water employed is $\sim 0.458m$, and the fundamental equation is reduced to the form—

$$S = \frac{1}{25} \tan^{-1} \frac{\sin 2(H-17^h)}{2.6 + \cos 2(H-17^h)}$$

The results, not agreeing with the observations to which they could be applied fifteen years ago, had to be modified by a series of empirical corrections, whose constants never appear to have undergone farther verification and modification.

The formulae still in use are—

At the Upper transit, the time is—

$$H - W = H - 58^m + S$$

$$\begin{aligned} & - 1^m 2 (P - 57) + (P - 57) \left\{ 8^m 2 - 10^m 7 \sin (H - 90^\circ) \right\} \\ & + (35^m - 190^m \sin Z \tan 7) \\ & - (17^m - 113^m \sin Z \tan Z) \sin (H - 120^\circ) \end{aligned}$$

It is greatly to be regretted that so important a matter as the reduction of the observations made at the Colaba observatory since 1847 has not been carried on. It is well known that the tide-tables published hitherto in the Bombay Almanac are unworthy of confidence. The following selected at random from the Colaba Observations and compared with the computed times of High Water taken from the Almanac for 1858, will best illustrate this—

Can such discrepancies be explained? Or are the observations collected and published from year to year utterly worthless, and if so, why are means not employed to make them at least deserving of the publication? If they are even tolerably correct, then why are computations so erroneous supplied to the public? The retardations of the times of high-water during a lunation should be represented by a line approaching a continuous curve; but neither the observations nor the computed times at Bombay present the usual continuity. Some of the observations are tolerably represented by subtracting about 14 40m from the times of high-water at London Bridge but in numerous cases the discrepancy is very large.

$$\begin{aligned} \text{and Height} &= 0^{\text{h}} 5 \frac{\sin 2 (H-15^{\circ})}{2.6 + \cos 2 (H-15)} \\ &+ 1^{\text{h}} 7 \left\{ \cos 2 (h-3^{\circ}) + 2.6 \cos 2 (H + 14^{\circ}) \right\} \\ &+ (0^{\text{h}} 13 + 0^{\text{h}} 009 D^{\circ}) (P-57') \\ &- 0^{\text{h}} 12 (P-57') \sin 2 (H-30^{\circ}) \\ &+ (0^{\text{h}} 5 - 4^{\text{h}} 0 \sin Z \tan Z) \\ &- (0^{\text{h}} 3 - 1^{\text{h}} 5 \sin Z \tan Z) \sin 2 (H-43^{\circ}) \end{aligned}$$

where H = mean time of the moon's upper transit

S = semimenstrual inequality

P = Moon's Horizontal Parallax at the upper transit

D = " Declination

$D-19^{\circ} = Z$ = " Zenith distance

h = Sun's Hour angle

And putting the same letters, with a dash, for the corresponding elements at the lower transit, and $N = D + 19^{\circ}$ for the moon's Nadir distance—at the Lower transit the time of high water is deduced from the formula—

$$\begin{aligned} H W &= 11-58^{\text{m}} + S \\ &- (50^{\text{m}} + 0^{\text{m}} 09 D^{\circ}) (P-57') \\ &- (P-57') \left\{ 7^{\text{m}} - 10^{\text{m}} \sin (H \curvearrowright 120^{\circ}) \right\} \\ &+ 38^{\text{m}} - 268^{\text{m}} \sin N \tan N \\ &- (30^{\text{m}} - 155^{\text{m}} \sin N \tan N) \sin (H \curvearrowright 120^{\circ}) \end{aligned}$$

$$\begin{aligned} \text{and the height} &= 0^{\text{h}} 5 \times \frac{\sin 2 (H'-15^{\circ})}{2.6 + \cos 2 (H'-15)} \\ &+ 1^{\text{h}} 7 \left\{ \cos 2 (h-3^{\circ}) + 2.6 \cos 2 (H + 14^{\circ}) \right\} \\ &+ (0^{\text{h}} 49 + 0^{\text{h}} 011 D'^{\circ}) (P-57') \\ &- 0^{\text{h}} 24 (P-57') \sin 2 (H'-30^{\circ}) \\ &+ 0^{\text{h}} 2 - 0^{\text{h}} 9 \sin N \tan N \\ &- (0^{\text{h}} 7 - 3^{\text{h}} 5 \sin N \tan N) \sin 2 (H - 80^{\circ}) \end{aligned}$$

The expressions used for S are—

$$\tan 2 S = \frac{\sin 2 (H-17^{\circ})}{2.4 + \cos 2 (H-17^{\circ})}$$

$$\text{and } \tan 2 S' = \frac{\sin 2 (H'-17^{\circ})}{2.4 + \cos 2 (H'-17^{\circ})}$$

About fifteen years have elapsed since these formulae were first published and observations have been continued with only occasional interruptions, during that period, but they have not been regularly reduced, and the constants corrected by the results, else we might by this time have had tide tables of considerable accuracy

INTRODUCTION

The only explanation which is conceived necessary to render the scheme of the following Calendar fully understood is that the Christian months indicated at the top of each page divide the Native months as they appear represented in the space below allotted to their names. January, for example, partakes the Hindû months (Marû) and (Guzerat, Duxru and Konean) Push and Naugh; (Malabar) Dhanuh and Mageram;—the Parsee months (Shenshah) Tir and Amurdad; (Kadmi) Amurdad and Shenshar; and the date of Noeros 130 to 160;—the Mahomedan months Rajab and Raba;—and the Jewish months Tebet and Sh bat

In the respective columns 1st of January corresponds with the 12th of Push Shud (Marû Guzerat, Duxru and Konean); the 10th of 1 haugh (Malabar); the 10th of Tir (Shenshah); the 10th of Amurdad (Kadmi) and the 130th day of Noeros or Kadmi; the 10th of Rajab (Mahomedan); and the 10th of Tebet (Jewish) and so on throughout the year

PARSEES—There are at present two branches of the Parsees, who differ from each other in their reckoning of the Calendar by one month; those that are one month forward in their year are styled Kadmi, and the rest Shenshahia. The present scheme embraces the Parsee Era of Yazdejird, commonly styled Kadmi or Durva;ee Noeros, or sea reckoning the same being made use of in all nautical calculations among Asiatic mariners, the New Year of which always commences on the 1st of Farvardin. The Kadmi reckon the New Year and the Durva;ee Noeros to fall on the 25th of August one month earlier than the commencement of the Shenshahia New Year. It also embraces the Parsee Era of Yazdejird, commonly called Shenshahia, the New Year of which generally begins on the 1st day of Farvardin. The Shenshahia compute the New Year from the 24th of September a month later than the commencement of the Kadmi New Year

HINDUS—It may here be observed that the Hindu Lunar months invariably consist of 30 Tithis, or Lunar days; and the whole month is divided into two equal parts of 15 Tithis each, the one called Shukla Paksh, or Shûd, the bright half or increase of the Moon, the other the Krishna Paksh, or Vad, the dark half or decrease of the Moon. The Lunar month begins, on the Western side of India and South of the Nerbadda river with the first day of the Shukla Paksh (Shud Panchada) or bright half of the Moon. At Benares, Ujjain, and the countries North of the Nerbadda, the Lunar month begins with the first day of the Krishna Paksh (Yad Pratipada) or dark half of the Moon. The first is designated the Shukladi mode of reckoning; and the latter the Krahmadi. The Lunar year begins with the first day of the Shukla Paksh, or bright half of the Moon in Chaitra, both North and South of the Narbada, in every country in India; but as the dark half of the Moon precedes the other or Shukla Paksh at Benares, the half Lunar month or (hastan) is taken from the last Lunar month of the year preceding and considered to belong to it.

It has been already stated that the Lunar month invariably consists of 30 Tithis or Lunar days, but it has been customary in order to regulate the Festivals and Fasts, to drop certain Lunar days, and to reckon others twice to make up the deficiency; the first of these are termed by Hindus Kahya Tithis (perishable days), and the days repeated twice are called Vidh Tithis (additional days). The rule of these is exceedingly simple; those Lunar days on which the sun does not rise (Suryodaya nahin) are struck out; those in which it rises twice are Vidh, are additional; and it is obvious that such circumstances will occur about six times in the course of the Lunar year.

The Hindus have several Eras.—The Kahya commences 3101 B.C. The Era of Vikramaditya, so named from a sovereign of Malwa who defeated Baka, King of Delhi, and got possession of the chief throne of Hindusthan is reckoned from 56 B.C. the years of this Era being called Samsat. The Era of Satavahana dates from the year 79 A.D. it is the most prevalent in the South of Hindusthan, as that of Vikramaditya is in the North and in Guzerat. The years of it are termed Saka. The Pauli Era, of which some there are several, is most commonly reckoned as dating from about 560 A.D.—the year beginning in Bengal in September and at Madras 12th July. It was introduced into Upper India by Akbar and dates from his accession 2 Rabiul sam 963 A.H. It commences on the 1st of the lunar month Asvin; and its equation with the Christian epoch is 5622 and with the Samsat 649. It was named from the time at which the land-tax in Upper India was paid for the season,—the Pauli or harvest year. The Pauli Era in the South of India established by Shah Jehan (A.D. 1638) ought to be altered but its commencement was fixed by the Madras Government to 12th July its equation is +569 with the Christian epoch. The Era of Parasurama is used in Malabar or from Mangalore to Cape Comorin. It derives its name from a prince who is said to have reigned 1176 B.C. The epoch is 7th Aug. 1837 Jul. Per or 1925 S.Y. It is reckoned in cycles of 1000 sidereal years, commencing when the Sun enters Aanya (Vris) answering to the month Asvin. The Fourth Cycle of this era commenced 15th Sept. 1856.

MAHOMEDANS.—The first day of the Moharrem, or the commencement of the year is ordinarily reckoned from the first observed appearance of the new Moon, or in cloudy weather from the time at which, but for such obstacle, it would be visible; and this can scarcely happen earlier than 24 or later than 48 hours after the conjunction. In this manner each separate month is reckoned, and the lapse of 12 such lunar months constitutes the Mahomedan year. In chronology history and other documents, however, they use months of 29 and 30 days alternately; and they add an intercalary day to the 2nd, 5th, 7th, 10th, 13th, 15th, 18th, 21st, 24th, 26th, and 29th year in a Cycle of 30. They reckon from the Hijra or flight of Mahomet which took place on the evening of Thursday 12th July A.D. 622, and the era commences from the following day. Thus the year 1279 A.H. began 29th June 1862 and ends, 17th June 1863. Thirty-two common years are about equal to 33 years of the Hijra; or more nearly 163 common years are within less than a day of 168 Mahomedan years.

The lunar year is 354d 8h 48.57

A year of the Hijra is 354d. 8h. 48m.

Hence a year of the Hijra = 0.970224 Gregorian year

And a Gregorian year = 1.03069 of the Hijra.

We may find the Christian date from that of the Hijra by deducting 3 per cent. from the latter and then adding 621.54 for the date A.D. of the end of the Mahomedan year; or more correctly by multiplying the Hijra date by $\frac{97}{100}$ and adding 621.54,—thus $1278 \times \frac{97}{100} + 621.54 = 1260.4 + 621.54 = 1881.94$, which shows that the year A.H. 1278 ended about the middle of 1863.

JEWS.—The Jews have ever marked their time by weeks, according to the command given by God himself, for labouring during only six days of each week and resting on the seventh, which was consequently set apart, or consecrated, to the service of the Creator. They not only hallowed the seventh day or Sabbath, which formed a portion of their week of days, but they had, also their week of years, which commenced at certain years, and their jubilee, or rejoicing periods, which were celebrated by acts of justice, forgiveness, and restitution at the end of every week of seven times seven years. The Hebrews, the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, and Persians, all had the custom of reckoning by weeks.

We have endeavoured to discriminate the Fests and Festivals of each nation by different sorts of type the Hindû, for example, we have distinguished by Roman small letters, as Push Shûd the Malabar and Jewish by Roman capitals, as MAGARIM the Parsee by small capitals as AMURDAD; and the Mahomedan by Italic small letters, as Moharram.

NATIVE FESTIVALS, FASTS, AND OBSERVANCES

HINDU

MAKAR SANKRANTI.—On this day the sun enters the sign "Makar" or Capricorn.—Vide 12th January. The Hindu festivals are so numerous, and the observances of them are so intricate, that they often bewilder a writer when he endeavours to describe them. The writers of the Hindu legends have set such enormous merit on the observances of such of them, as to surpass all human comprehension; and they have unhesitatingly said that those observances themselves will obtain heaven. Great rejoicings are held among the Hindus, but particularly among the Brahmans, on account of the feast of Makar Sankranti, when the sun reaches the most southern sign of the Zodiac, Makar or Capricornus. From this day till the time of his leaving the most southern sign of the Zodiac, he is said to be in Urdhvan, and from the time of his leaving the northern sign to the entering the sign "Kark" or Cancer he is said to be in Dakshinayan. The vernal and autumnal equinoxes divide the year into two equal parts, Urdhvan, and Dakshinayan. The days of Urdhvan are reckoned lucky and those of Dakshinayan unlucky. During the days of Dakshinayan, it is said that the gates of heaven are shut, and in the Urdhvan they are open. For men to die in the Urdhvan is considered more blessed, because they are said to get immediate entrance into heaven; but if the righteous die in the Dakshinayan, they have to wait outside the gates till the Urdhvan sets in. In the days of Urdhvan, Makaj—the ceremony of investing the youths with the sacred cord—and marriages are celebrated. The ceremonies that are performed on the day of Makar Sankranti, just at the time of the sun's entrance into the sign, are these.—The Hindus go to the sea, accompanied by a Brahman priest, to bathe there; they rub their bodies with tilla seed,* and wash themselves in the manner prescribed in the Shastras. The Brahmans then repeat certain incantations suited to the occasion and close the ceremony by receiving due adoration, and a present of money for himself. On their return home they invite Brahmans, present them with a cap of bell-metal, filled with tilla seed and some money according to the ability of the Yajman. Some even present the Brahmans with copper pots, new dhatus, umbrellas, &c. and the whole family receives benediction from them, which is done by the Brahmans repeating certain words, and throwing on their heads a few grains of red coloured rice. After the performance of this ceremony they go to take their meals, which consist of sweetmeats. They invite their friends and relations to dinner and towards evening they wear new clothes, gold, and other ornaments, and frequent the houses of their friends and relations, distributing tilla seed mixed with sugar. At the time of putting the tilla into the parties' hands, they repeat these words "Receive these tilla mixed with sugar and be friendly to me throughout the whole year. All the praise and protection that are offered this day are to the Sun, and to no other god. The second day of Sankranti is named Kar, which is generally celebrated by the women, making small presents among those of their own sex.—Vide 12th January.

WANANT PANCHMI seems to have been instituted in honour of the Spring which season is personified under the name of Wananti, who is said to be attending on Aruna or the god of love.—Vide 24th January.

RAJNARAYANI is dedicated to the worship of the Sun. This day is the beginning of the Manvantara, or period embracing the reign of Manu, of which fourteen govern in succession, during the different ages of the world. The present age is under the dominion of the seventh Manu; and at the commencement of this period a new sun is supposed to have mounted his chariot.—Vide 26th January.

SHIVRAJ—A fast-day in honour of Shiva, during which the longa, or Bacchiphallia, is worshipped.—Vide 18th February. Yad Chaitrad, or the 20th of every month, is kept sacred by the retailers of Shiva; but Nagaj and Chaitrad has obtained its peculiar epithet, Midd Shiva Katri, or the great night of Shiva. The Hindu legends account in the following manner for its celebrity among the sect of Shiva Katri.—In time immemorial an archer of wicked and licentious habits went into a forest on this day to shoot deer. He spent the whole day in the pursuit of his game, and, on a sudden, night came on, and he was left at the mercy of wild beasts

* Tilla are said to be the favourite grain of the Sun.

When he found himself in such a forlorn condition, he had recourse to a Bale or Bilus tree* to secure himself from their attack. Having got into the tree, by way of relaxation, or to get a clearer view he broke off all the branches that hung around and above his head, and flung them down; fortunately the twigs which he threw fell on the Linga of Shiva, which was near the foot of the tree. Shiva was so much pleased and satisfied by the accidental worship of his votary that he forthwith sent a Valanda or heavenly chariot, and took the hunter into Kylas his own abode, with acclamations of joy. To commemorate this great event of the entrance of the archer into Kylas, the Hindus observe a feast this day and worship Shiva in hopes of obtaining a like reward. Observance of Shiva Ratn.—This day the votaries of Shiva fast, and in the night, repair to the temples of Shiva, accompanied by a Brahman priest, who performs pūja by repeating certain incantations; first he pours some water over the Linga, and washes it, and afterwards he decorates it with choice flowers. When this is done, the priest takes his sacred book wherein Shiva's thousand different names are written, and reads the names and the Yaj mān,—the worshipper—stings a leaf of the Bale over the top of the Linga each time. This kind of pūja is performed four different times during the night, and thus no sleep is obtained for the whole night. This is styled the pūja of the four Prakaras or watches. It commences at about eight P.M. and ends at five A.M. This night the pagodas of Shiva are thronged by devotees. Some persons engage twelve Brahmins, others four &c., according to the abilities of the Yajman to perform the pūja. The Brahmins must be liberally paid for their labours.

HOLI (SHAKTI—HOLIKA OR PHALGUTSIVA).—This festival, called also Dolawatra, or the swinging festival is supposed by Sir W. Jones to relate to the vernal equinox, and to be similar to the Persian Noruz. It commences fifteen days before the full moon on which the ceremonies are terminated and is held in honour of Krishna. In the freedom with which the lower classes now behave towards their superiors, this festival resembles the Roman Saturnalia and in the sending people on boisterous errands, it corresponds with our 1st of April. Red powders are daubed upon the visage of the god and thrown at his worshippers on each other while females are saluted by exclamations and jests of very impure description. The wheaten cake which is placed on the pile lighted at the close of the festival, is called Poli and the right of first offering it in a village is considered as an honorary privilege. Neither the origin of this festival nor the manner in which it is observed, can be described. Nor is the observation of it confined to the lower classes of the native community—the highest apparently joining in it with the same zest as the lowest. This festival nominally continues from the new to the full moon; but only a few of the last days are practically and openly devoted to it. It is often called Shingra, from the name of the month in which it occurs.—See 5th March.

THE HINDU NEW YEAR (the first day called Gudi Padwa).—On the morning of this day a Hindu first rubs oil upon his body and then bathes himself with warm water. A pole bearing a flag and surmounted with a brass or copper vessel, is erected in front of the house. One such pole must be erected by each family. This represents the banner of Indra, the king of the gods, which on this day is also raised in honour of him by the gods. What is done on earth is therefore in imitation of what takes place in the heaven of Indra. The leaves of the bitter Nimb tree are then to be eaten, which secures health to the body because this tree is the offspring of the Ambrosia of the gods. The Almanack for the New Year is then to be worshipped, and its predictions in regard to the ear just commencing are to be heard from the mouth of the Jyotishya. They tell whether there is to be abundance or scarcity of rain, whether there will be unusual heat or cold whether robberies, insurrections, &c., are to abound, whether unusual sickness is to prevail &c. &c. Each individual on this day also learns what he is to expect during the year whether health or sickness, prosperity or adversity is to be his portion, &c. &c. All this important information is not, of course, to be obtained without some compensation. And not only are presents to be given to the Jyotishya, but the poor people are taught on this day to extend their liberality also to the Gūris and Brahmins. The day is also to be celebrated by fasting. This is considered an auspicious day for commencing a new building, or engaging in any new undertaking.—See 20th March.

RAM NAVMI.—On this day Ramchandra, the 7th incarnation of Vishnu, was born at Ayodhya or Oude, about B.C. 1000.—See 25th March. Rama is supposed to be the same as the Grecian Dionysus or Bacchus, and the object of the incarnation was to effect the destruction of Ravan, the ten-headed tyrant of Lanka or Ceylon, which was at last done with the assistance of Hanuman, the chief of the monkey tribe. The

A favourite tree of Shiva, and which is held sacred among the Hindus.

Birth of Rama is, strange to say celebrated eight days previous to its occurrence that is, from the first of Chaitra Sudd to the ninth. On the first day the temples of Rama are whitewashed and illuminated in the evening, and the image of Rama is adorned with costly ornaments. In the evening the Ramayan, or the sacred legendary history of Rama, is read in the temples, and in the night Akshay is preached by the Haridras, who describes the morality and heroic actions of Rama. Rathos are not visited during the nights. In some temples Brahmans are fed with rich and substantial dinners for eight successive days; these days are denominated Rama nasvati, or nine nights of Rama. During these days, many Hindus, both males and females, go to the temples of Rama to hear the Kirtan and Pada. The last or principal day is Ramnavami, when, it is said, Rama became incarnate at noon. In honour of this incarnation, the Hindus fast the whole day. They get up in the morning, wash themselves, and put on rich clothes and ornaments, and repair to the temples of Rama at about nine o'clock. Every temple of Rama is well furnished on this day, and the images are decorated with precious ornaments and rich brocade. A Hari also is engaged to describe the birth and circumstances that attended this incarnation. He continues his discourse till twelve o'clock, when he brings a small image of Rama, nicely ornamented and well clad and shows it to his audience, and tells them that it is Rama who became incarnate; he then puts it into a small cradle prepared for the purpose. The assembly then throw themselves prostrate before the image and worship it. Great is their rejoicing and acclamation on this occasion; they sing guddi, a red powder on each other and with great mirth at about one o'clock they go home, and again return to the temples in the evening. The fast of Ramnavami is more particularly observed by the votaries of Vishnu.

VAR SAVITERI (SAVITERI VRATA).—A fast observed by women at the root of the Indra Ag tree, to preserve them from widowhood.—Vide 1st June.

ASHADI EKADASHI is the eleventh of the light half of the month Ashad, and is dedicated to Vishnu. On this day which refers to the summer solstice, commences the night of the gods, during which the deity reposes for four months on the serpent Shesha.—Vide 5th June.

NAAG PANCHAMI, is sacred to the demi-gods in the form of serpents. Ceremonies are performed on this day to ensure protection against the bites of snakes.—Vide 19th August. The serpent Kashya, slain by Krishna, is worshipped at the festival, as was the Pythia, at Delphi.

SHRAVAN OR (NARAYAN) PURNIMA.—On this day the rainy season is considered to be at an end, and a concoction is offered to the sea to gain its favour towards those who now begin to trust themselves to its mercy.—Vide 28th August.

JANMA OR GURU ASHTAMI (JANMA ASHTAMI).—Instituted in commemoration of the birth of Krishna, which took place at midnight in the city of Mathura. Krishna, who in some respects agrees with the Grecian Apollo, was the eighth incarnation of Vishnu, in which, according to a large sect of Hindus, was manifested a greater portion of divinity than in any of the preceding ones. His uncle Kousha who, it was predicted, would be slain by one of his own family endeavoured to ensure the destruction of the infant god, by placing guards over his pregnant sister; but the child was preserved from them and other attempts of his relations, who had given directions for the slaughtering of all newly-born infants.—Vide 14th September. This holiday is reckoned one of the greatest among the Hindus and is therefore observed by almost all the Hindu community; there are two sects among the followers of Krishna, and they celebrate the feast on different days. Those belonging to the one keep the birth-day of Krishna on the eighth day of the dark moon and those belonging to the other, the day following—being the one on which he was removed to Godol, to the house of Nanda, from fear of his maternal uncle, who sought his destruction and some even keep both days. The former fast on the day of Janma Ashtami, and the latter on the day of Godol Ashtami. They fast the whole day and at night they bathe, and worship an image of the infant Krishna, adorning it with tulsi a favorite plant of Vishnu's, and with other flowers, in the manner enjoined in the Shastras; and at about ten or eleven p.m. they eat their Phaladar food which consists of fruits and various kinds of grains, being prohibited from eating rice and other grains that day. A Brahman is called in to perform the pooja, and afterwards he himself is worshipped, and sent away loaded with Dakshina and other presents. This is all done according to the rules of the Shastra. The holiday is then observed among the people of the higher castes. On the day of Godol Ashtami, goddol (or keepers of snakes) hold a great jubilee among themselves, as Krishna was bred up among their race. They join themselves into a company and frequent the houses of the people who follow their profession, holding each other's hands, dancing in the streets, and repeating the words, "Govinda, Govinda," when they are honoured either by throwing over them coals, or presenting them with coals. These people are called Gopālī-protectors of cows. On the night of Jāma Ashtami, crowds of people, generally of the lower ranks, flock to the temple of Kāśhī which is commonly known by the name of Mathā; there they hire native music, and continue shouting and making a great noise. The Bhagat of Kāśhī, or the head of the temple, who is very often of the Shudra caste and who is considered a supernatural being, at least at the time, with great solemnity and grave countenance, makes his way through the assembly accompanied by the playing of tam-tams, and exclamations of joy from his disciples and standing before the statue of Kāśhī, offers prayers to the idol which is richly decorated on the occasion. He is at first quite calm, but shortly after shows signs of inspiration by the god. He begins to untie his shawl, or the tuft of hair on the crown of his head, and then slowly shakes his limbs. By degrees his whole frame quivers, and he throws his body into violent contortions dancing and muttering strange ambiguous and wild sounds, which no one can understand. He then takes his scourge, which is kept near the shrine, and scourges himself as if he were insane, and performs many other equally strange actions. No sooner does the assembly around see him in this predicament, than believing that the spirit of the god has entered into him, they burn incense before him and fall prostrate, and pray to him to be merciful to them. When he has received divine homage, he quietly takes his seat, but does not cease quaking and trembling. His disciples, who are always near him, then commence, one after another, to shake themselves and dance in the same way; and the spirit of the god is believed to enter them also. This day the great Bhagat can create new disciples, and give them the power of bringing the spirit of the god into their bodies. Sick persons, persons supposed to be possessed of devils, children, &c., are brought to the temple to receive the benediction of the Bhagat and his disciples. He rubs a little ashes on their foreheads, passes his hand over their heads, and gives them full assurance of speedy recovery from their sickness without taking any medicine. The poor patient, with full confidence, returns home, expecting the fulfilment of the Bhagat's promise. The Bhagat receives large presents on this occasion from his followers and he is held in great respect among the orthodox Hindus, and even among people of some other tribes. On the following morning the Bhagat collects the circle of his disciples in front of the temple, and orders a sufficient quantity of coals to be thrown over their heads so that their whole bodies they all begin to dance in company, holding each other's hands, and occasionally throwing themselves on the ground and besmearing their bodies with mud, shouting as loudly as they can. The Bhagat, in the mean time, with a scourge in his hand so far as he can see his way into the crowd, and with all his pretended dignity stands in the midst and looking in all directions in feigned solemnity he lifts up his scourge and putting it round the neck of one of his disciples as a token of his regard, draws him towards himself, when the disciple trembles a little, and then stands firm, stretching his hands towards the sky with his eyes closed. No sooner does the Bhagat see him in this state than he scourges him two or three times so adroitly that it gives him no pain, while to the eye of the spectators it appears a prodigy that he does not feel it. This is repeated till he has shown the same mark of approbation to the whole body of his disciples, and when he ceases, sweetmeats are distributed among the disciples and to all the spectators. This terminates the feast of Gōpāl Ashtami among the people of the Shudra caste.

PITHORI OR PRACHIN AMAR.—A ceremony observed at the new moon of the month Nāgaurān, at which the 64 Yagis, or female attendants of the goddess Durga, are worshipped, particularly by women, with the hope of obtaining issue. — Vādī 18th September. The 30th day of Shrāvan, or the last day of the dark half of the moon, is denominated "Prachī Amā." Prachī is one of the goddesses of the Manā. She is commonly known among the people of the Konkan and Dehkan by the name of Pithorī. Wealthy Banians and other people of Gujarat go to Walthamoor on the previous evening with their families to remain in the Dharmashala during the night; and on the subsequent morning they bathe in the tank of Walthamoor. (This tank is called by the natives Dam-ganga, i.e. the Ganges produced by an arrow; and they give a marvellous account of its origin. They say when Brahmā visited this part of the world, and found that there was no pure water to drink, he pierced the ground with an arrow from his bow and thus brought the Ganges into existence.) They also perform Arachān on the margin of the tank, and ceremonies for procuring the deliverance of their departed ancestors from the thraldom of Yama, the king of the infernal regions, if they still remain at his court or in his dominions. They afterwards repair to the temple of Walthamoor and worship his image, and then they take their week. The remaining part of the day is spent in amusements. Booths are erected in the locality of the temple, and furnished presented with Dakshina, and the image is seated in a palanquin or in an ark expressly made for the purpose adorned with fresh flowers, and carried to the sea or a tank in a procession which consists of the master of the house his children and relatives, richly attired for the occasion. When they reach the place, they take out the image and rowing it to the water with every devout expression of regret for its absence till next year. On the day of Ganesh Chaturthi the Hindus are prohibited by the Shashtra from looking at the moon, and there is rejoiced and credulous Hind are afraid to look at her this evening for fear of incurring any calamity during the year. If the common people happen to see the moon they try to provoke their evil spirits to abuse them and comfort themselves with the idea that the calamities incurred will be all comprehended in that abuse and removed by it.

RHINOPANIMI—Observed in a rout of the seven Runas & sages, who are supposed to be the seven bright stars in the Great Bear—Side 17th September

G 131 — (One of the names of the goddess Laria.) Calves are made in the shape of white ox and cut in 2 at night — 1st 11th September flowers around their necks. It is said that Parth, the most invincible of the five Pandavas who had a peculiar fondness for horses and pre-eminent skill in the art of chariot-fighting and from their being great auxiliaries in the matters of battle washed his favourite milk white horses, put garlands of flowers around their necks, and tapped them in token of fondness and approbation, with his own hand—owing to this legend it seems the decorating of horses with flowers on this day is observed.

DIVALI (from Deepavali Sanscrit, signifying a row of lamps)—is celebrated in honour of the goddess Kali, or Bhawani, who was formerly propitiated by human sacrifices, and of Vishnu's victory over the demon Irahji—Vide 11th November. The festival however seems to be more peculiarly consecrated to Lakshmi or the goddess of prosperity. The thirteenth day (Anant Chaturdashi) is termed Ishantayidasi, and the four days following their stores and perform pūja to their wealth. On the fourteenth or new moon there being a fresh account pūja is again performed before the old and new books. The festival lasts altogether five days. The Divali means the feast of illumination or ranges of light. It is celebrated for a period of five days, during which houses are cleaned with natras and illuminated a quadrangular diya or is made in front of the house and painted with different coloured powders, it is called Hangul pūja and with diya the chiefest portion of the feast. The Divali commences from the 13th day (Chaturdashi)—this day is denominated Ishantayidasi. On it they collect all the treasure in the house and worship it giving it the name of Lakshmi the goddess of wealth a light is made and dedicated to Lakshmi, the god of the internal regions, and a preparation is made for the succeeding morning. Fireworks, crackers, sponters, &c. are displayed. The 25th is Navami Lakshmidasi. On it Lakshmi killed Narkasura an invincible giant after a desperate battle and entered his city early in the morning, with the name of Lakshmi when the people illuminated the city and received her with great joy and a namati and the women of the city adorned themselves, and before him with lighted diyas, and congratulated him. The Hindus keep this day to commemorate his great conquest. They get up early in the morning fill the house with lights and their doors with perfumed incense and bathe themselves with hot water. No member of the family left unbarbed new cloth and ornaments are put on, and the children are decorated. When the day is over the mistress of the house will send a set of garlands called diya—by placing with either in silver or brass dishes, a symbol of the removal of all their afflictions and of a happy year—when each male member makes her a present of more sweetmeats are distributed and if ready are in need to give. The 30th Amavasya last day of the moon is the day of Varanasi the goddess of learning and wealth. It is vulgarly known by the name of Feetpūjan, or the worship of the shops. This day the Vikram Samvat, or of Vikram era, closes; all the merchants close their accounts this evening. New journal ledgers and day books are bought and worshipped through a Brahmin priest; new entries are made in the account books; written are sent to different shops with requests to credit in their names on this auspicious evening. Saravati is invoked to render the subsequent year prosperous, and to be with them throughout it when the Brahmins are sufficiently paid for their labour, and the servants receive a present of some money according to their rank; this day is celebrated by all classes of people—Hindus, Muslims, Mahomedans &c. This first day of Kartik Mand is Bhairav the day of king Hali. On it Hali was sent to Patil, or a lower region by Vishnu for his great merit. They rise up very early in the morning make the lights, clean the houses, wash their bodies, and fill a basket with all the rags and rubbish in the house put a lighted lamp over it, and throw it outside of the house repeating these words—"Let all misery and troubles go and the king of Hali come." After ablution the women make an image of Hali and a relay of presents are given to the Brahmins and other mendicants. The 2nd day of Kartik Mand is Jama Devitya which is commonly known by the name of Khulbi. The day Jama, the king of the internal regions, went to his wife to dine and to perpetuate the memory of the Hindus must go to their sisters' home and take their meal with them; and make them a present of some money or gold ornaments, and thus please the king who will be taken from the punishment of their sins.

KARTIK MAHARAJ—Is the eleventh day of the month of the light in the month Kartik and is celebrated in honour of Vishnu. On this day the god is believed to rise from his abode of four months—a fable which has reference to the 15th of the winter solstice.—Vide 11th November.

MARTI PRADHANA—the full moon of the month Kartik. On the fourteenth of this month is the festival of Amavasya, and the festival of which day is also Amavasya. Ku pūja in Brahmins are considered indispensable necessary. Amavasya is said to have passed 14 years at the mansion of the monster Tripurakarna—Vide 24th November. Marti Pradha Purnima—the full moon in the month of Kartik is called the Ti Pára Shura master of the three cities. This demon is said to have become so powerful that he defeated almost all the gods and drove them out of their habitations, when they formed a league and went to Kylas the abode of Shiva, and represented to him their grievances who after ending an ear to their piteous supplications comforted them by the assurance that the evil should be soon removed and sent them back to their respective homes. He accordingly made a car of the earth the wheels of which were the sun and the moon. Brahma was chosen his charioteer the mountain Himalaya formed his bow and Wasuky the king serpent his bowstring. Vishnu himself became his quiver. Thus equipped Shiva rode and destroyed the mighty giant after a struggle. To perpetuate the memory of this great event, the women of the Hindus get up very early in the morning of this day at about two o'clock and wash themselves in cold water repair to the temple of Shiva, and worship his image. Afterwards they return home, and present a Brahman with a lighted lamp made either of silver copper or brass, according to their ability along with some fruits and Dakshina—a present in hard real the Shiva called Dipdan, or present of a lamp. On the evening of this occasion is made in the temple of Shiva, and a pillar of stones built in front of all of them for the special occasion. A grand fair is also celebrated this day in honour of Wallekwar an image of Shiva at Malabar Hill. It is kept for three days, when booths are erected and shops are adorned with all kinds of articles by people of all denominations. The Hindus, both the rich and poor Brahmins and Shudras, go there and worship the image of Shiva and buy sweetmeats and toys for their children. Some of the wealthy Hindus remain there with their families for three or four days in the Dharmahala or stupa built by them but the poor return the same evening. During these days hundreds of rupees are uselessly spent in hiring conveyances, and purchasing sweetmeats and toys.

BIRTH CEREMONIES

Different ceremonies are prescribed by the Shastras to be observed at the period of conception and the different stages of pregnancy. Jalkarm is to be performed at the birth of the infant, and consists in giving it a drop of honey out of a golden spoon before dividing the navel-string. Other rites are to be observed on naming the child twelve days after birth—on bringing him outside the house when three months old—on feeding him with the milk at six months—and, if a male, on shaving his head at the age of three years.

MARRIAGE CEREMONIES

Among the Brahmins the male may be married at any time after the Manj or investiture with the sacred thread which is done within the age of eight years, and among other castes at any age. The female should not be ten years old and her age must be less than that of her husband and she should be married before the appearance of the signs of puberty. The Shastras mention eight kinds of marriage, but only one is observed by the higher castes, named Brahma when the charges are severally incurred by the fathers of the parties. The principal marriage ceremonies among Brahmins are the Lagnapatrika, or writing by the Joshi or Astrologer of the names of the parties and the day and hour at which the wedding is to take place the Saptapadi or walking round a fire three times, at each time seven steps and tying together the garments of the parties, and the Ahni or burnt offering after which the contract is indissoluble. The girl is given away by her father in his own house in which it is usual for her to remain till the appearance of the signs of puberty after which she proceeds to the residence of her father-in-law where her husband also resides, or to that of the latter should it be otherwise. Particular months and conjunctions of the planets are prescribed for the celebration of marriages in different castes as also the same castes in different provinces have their peculiar ceremonies, which are too various to be described here. Phalasaibandh is the performance of certain ceremonies on the occurrence of the first menstruous symptoms.

DEATH CEREMONIES

On the death of a man, the performance of his funeral obsequies (Kriya) and of the monthly and annual purification ceremonies, devolves on his heir. The principal times for performing Shradha are seven days after death secondly every month and thirdly on the anniversary of death. Brahmins are unclean for ten days after the death of a relation, the military class for twelve, the mercantile for fifteen, and Shudras for thirty. Among the Hindus, generally the body of the deceased is burnt, but that of an infant under two years of age is buried. The Shradha consists in the offering of rice, flowers water &c. to the deceased and to his manes, in order to enable him soul to ascend to the heaven of the Pitris, or great progenitors of the human race.

Hossein. The Mardah, a poetical composition of great merit, and embracing the whole of the subject they commemorate, is chanted with great effect; the names of their lawful leaders are recounted with blessings, and that of the usurpers, the Kaiphas, with curses. Then comes the procession of Dhal Dhal—Hossein's horse, killed at Kurbala, beautifully caparisoned; and finally the Tamas are deposited with funeral rites in the public burial grounds, when the Moharram ceases. The Tabû is a slight framework of bamboo, in the shape of a mausoleum covered and ornamented with coloured paper and tinsel. They vary considerably in size and appearance, according to the taste and ability of those who build them. Before these Tabûs incense is burned and various other rites are performed. The Tabûs it is said, are peculiar to India. They are not mentioned in the Qirân, nor are they built by the inhabitants of Persia and Arabia. Many Mahomedans regard them with strong disapprobation. In Bombay the larger portion of the Mahomedans unite in building the Tabûs. These are taken out, and, accompanied with music, carried in procession through the Shendy Bazaar from midnight of the ninth until three o'clock of the morning of the tenth day and from two to six o'clock on the afternoon of the same day on their way to the beach in Back Bay where the greater part of the Tabûs, after being stripped of whatever is of value are cast into the sea. The practice of building Tabûs seems to be losing ground in Bombay a portion of those who formerly united in this having adopted the views of those opposed to such things. The Indian Mahomedans, who do not unite in building the Tabûs, are accustomed to go on this occasion to the mosques for a succession of evenings, to listen to the recitation of the death of Hossein. Their demonstrations of grief however are not equal to those of the Moguls and Persians, who while listening to the recital weep aloud and unite violently upon their breasts. There are accustomed to meet at the Masjid in Mirza Mahomed Ali Khan Street. In Bombay there is strictly speaking no representation of the battle which was fought previous to the death of Hossein. Some two or three horsemen in bearing flags, enter the large yard adjoining the Imambara with loud wailings and are followed by two horses apiece, representing those which were for the use of the fallen Hossein. One person on horseback with a long sword apparently run through the head and covered with blood joins in the wailing. A female infant in deep mourning sitting at the door of a small mausoleum which is carried on the shoulders of men, wails with great vehemence and throws upon her head, in token of grief. These pass round in a circle accompanied by a company of musicians on foot who beat upon a drum and sing Hossein Hai Hossein Hai Hossein. Sometimes a person representing an dying state is carried covered with wounds and blood and darts and daggers run into it, is carried about in procession. It would seem that this festival is now celebrated with less effort and effect than formerly. It is apparently becoming more and more a farce. The grief is doubtless for the most part feigned. The decline of the peculiar zeal of the Mahomedans must necessarily lead them to enter into these with less spirit.—I do 27th June

PARSIS

The Parsis of India are divided into two sects,—the Shabashahs or "Ras" and the Kadus or "Chingars." The former of whom constitute the larger portion of the race. This division originated only about a hundred and fifty years ago, when a learned Persian priest named Jamsap arrived in India, and found that his countrymen differed from the Zoroastrians of Iran in their calculation of time by a full month and in other minor points relating to their liturgy. Serious disputes arose in consequence which ended in the formation of the two sects, the Shabashahs adhering to their own views, and the Kadus adopting the opinions imported by Jamsap,—thus agreeing with their Persian brethren. Notwithstanding this division no estrangement exists between them in their social intercourse. The difference lies only in their computation of time and in some slight variations in the forms of prayer. Intermarriage is allowed as well as admission to each other's places of worship.

The festivals of the Parsis, are celebrated with little or no outward pomp. Their holidays are mostly occupied in prayers in the morning and festivities and rejoicings during the rest of the day. Some of their religious institutions are traced to a very ancient period. The festival of the Naomoz dates from upwards of three thousand years before Christ and is kept to this day by most of the nations of Western Asia, notwithstanding their differences of creed. The Emperor Akbar adopted the "Naomoz," and fourteen other festivals of the Parsis, for the observance of those who were attached to his favourite doctrines of the "Habi Farh" or the Religion of God which he leniently endeavoured to introduce among his people.

PAPETI OR NEW YEAR'S DAY—Among the festivals observed by the Parsis, the first and universally kept is the Papeti or new year's day. This day is celebrated in honour of Yazdegerd, the last King of the Sassanid dynasty who was dethroned by Khalid Omar about A.D. 640. The ancient Persians reckoned a new era from the accession of each successive monarch and as Yazdegerd had no successor the date of his accession to the throne has been brought down to the present time thus making their current year 1251 BZ. In their calculations of the year only 304 days are allowed for as the leap year is unknown to them though there are records which prove that in every 120 years one month was added to make it correspond with the solar year. The year is divided into twelve months of thirty days each and five extra days. Gathas, as they are called, are read at the end to make up the deficiency. On this day the Parsis rise early and dress in their best suits of clothes and those piously disposed say their prayers in the private residences or attend the first mosque where large congregations are gathered. After prayers each Parsi visits his friends and relatives whom he has not seen for some time. Then the Hama-i-Nur or morning bath is performed. It is customary in all of Persia to keep this day as a day of fasting and washing each other with new water. The first of the day is spent in their own houses or in the mosque where feasts are given and entertainments are kept up till a late hour. After noon the men go to the public baths and new suits of clothes are presented to servants and their wives.

date the origin of this festival from the time of Jamahid, the third king of the Peshadian dynasty of Persia. Jamahid is supposed by Bailly to have flourished 3200 years before Christ. The Shah Naimah celebrates him as the first prince of his race who introduced civilization among mankind and established the computation of time. If we are to believe the Persian writers the exquisite bas-reliefs among the ruins of Persepolis,—still visible in beauty after a lapse of two thousand years,—are representations of the Court of Jamahid more especially on the festival of the Naoroz. The sculptures at this place contain representations of the Courts of ancient Persia, with the long train of attendants bringing offerings to the feet of the Monarchs and as the Na roz is a sort of revenue settlement day when the lords of different provinces lay their annual contributions before the throne and are allowed audience with the monarch the idea of a part of the Persepolitan bas-reliefs being a picture of some anient king of Persia holding his court on the day of the Naoroz does not appear to be without foundation. In Persia this festival is kept for several days with unusual pomp by all the inhabitants, whether Mahomedans or Persians. In India it is simply a day of rejoicing.

A ARII ZAN JAZAR—Aria, in the Zend text is the name of the angel who presided over the assembly of the laws or festival in hold in his honour. The Persians are required on this day to approach the sea shore or any stream of water and chant the / ari zan ri lut owin to their long residence in this country. They have but not many Hindu rites in the last year of this holiday and offerings of sugar corns to the sun, moon, and stars, are not uncommon. The better informed persons of the community however join with their brethren in these superstitious acts. In Hindia there is little or no festival.

AN A JAZAR—Jazari is a name for many things, the name by which the month most of the Persians call it. This is the most sacred of the twelve months, and the day of the festival is in great respect and veneration. On this day the fire temples are illuminated with oil and offerings of sandal wood are made to the sacred fire. The most sacred of the twelve months.

JEWISH

The festival of the Jews is kept weekly on Sabbath and early. Each seventh and thirteenth day is moreover marked with peculiar solemnities.

The weekly festival was held Sabbath day, and was devoted to rest and cheerful devotion. It was kept with great solemnity and was the work of God, and the people were required to be at the festival. It was kept with great solemnity and was the work of God, and the people were required to be at the festival.

The festival was held on the day of the new moon or the first day of every month which was proclaimed by sound of trumpet. The law however did not oblige the people to rest on these days unless it happened to be a Sabbath day.

The festival of Pentecost, and of Tabernacles, were the three principal festivals observed under the law, and they were times of great joy and festivity. As all the male inhabitants throughout the country were required on these occasions to go up to Jerusalem, and the females also permitted to accompany them if they chose, the courses was generally very great. These religious assemblies, besides commemorating important events in their history, also subserved other important purposes. They kept them steadfast in their religion by the view of covenants and the Majesty of the divine sovereign. They also furnished the means of religious instruction for the law of God was then read and explained and they served more or less to renew the acquaintance and friendship of tribes and families who from a part of the country thus met three times in the year in the holy city.

The PASSOVER was instituted to commemorate the departure out of Egypt, because on the night preceding that departure, the destroying angel who slew the first-born of the Egyptians passed over the houses of the Hebrews, they being marked with the blood of the lamb, which for this reason was called the Paschal Lamb. It was celebrated on the 14th day of the first month of the ecclesiastical year (March), and lasted seven days. A lamb, or if that could not be found, a kid without blemish, was killed, roasted and eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. The first Passover was eaten with their loins girded, their shoes on their feet, and their staves in their hands, that they might be in readiness for their journey circumstances which were not observed in its celebration after the Exodus.

The Feast of PENTECOST was celebrated on the fiftieth day after the Passover and was a Feast of thanksgiving to the Lord, wherein they acknowledged his dominion over their country and their labours, by offering to him two loaves, as the first fruits of all their harvests. It also commemorated the giving of the law from Mount Sinai two years & fifty days after their departure from Egypt. The Hebrews counted seven weeks from the Passover beginning on the second day of that solemnity and hence called it the Feast of Weeks but by the Christians it was called Pentecost a name which signifies the Fiftieth Day. It was on the day of Pentecost that the Holy Spirit was poured out from the ascended Saviour upon his apostles, qualifying them with miraculous gifts for establishing the New Testament kingdom.

The Feast of TABERNACLES was instituted as a memorial of their fathers having dwelt in tents for forty years during the passage through the wilderness. It was kept in the first month of the civil year (September), and lasted eight days the first and seventh being the most solemn. During its continuance they lived in booths, tents or tabernacles constructed of the branches and leaves of trees. On the first day they set up branches of the handfast tree, with their fruit, which they carried in company to the synagogue. Holding in their right hand a branch of a palm tree three branches of myrtle and two of willow tied together and having in their left hand a tree and in it fruit they waved them towards the four quarters of the world, singing songs and crying Hosanna.

There were the three great Festivals at which all the males were required to go up to Jerusalem to worship. "Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose in the Feast of Unleavened Bread and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. — (Deut. xvi. 16. Ex. xxxiv. 23.)

The feast of TABERNACLES was celebrated on the first day of the civil year (September) its commencement being proclaimed by sound of trumpet, and the day was kept solemn, all business being forbidden, and certain sacrifices appointed to be offered.

There are also two other feasts, though not appointed by law which require men to appear as they are often mentioned in Jewish history. The Feast of DEDICATION was appointed to celebrate the re-establishment of Divine worship in Jerusalem after Antiochus Epiphanes had been vanquished and the temple purified. It is observed for eight days from the 25th of the third month (December), and is also called the Feast of Lights, from the illuminations which the Jews make during these days in their houses. The feast of Purim falls on the 14th and 15th of the fourth month (March) and commemorates the defeat of Haman. On these days they give alms to the poor and presents to their friends.

The 10th of the first month of the civil year is the day of ATONEMENT on which they observe a fast from evening to evening and beseech their sins. Other fasts were also observed in later times, connected with the siege of Jerusalem (10th of tenth month), the capture of the city (17th of the fourth month) the burning of the temple (9th of the fifth month), and the death of Gedaliah (3rd of the seventh month) of the Ecclesiastical year.

Every seventh year was to the Jews a Sabbatical year and we find that Alexander the Great granted them an exemption from tribute on that year.

After seven weeks or Sabbaths of years, that is after seven times seven years, the great Festival of the JUBILEE was celebrated and during the whole year they suffered no reaping. On this fiftieth year every one resumed possession of his inheritance whether it were sold, mortgaged, or alienated in any way and Hebrew slaves of every description were set free with their wives and children. Hebrew and alien as well as towns were the only kind of property that did not return to the original owner in the year of the Jubilee.

TABLE OF COINS, WEIGHTS, AND MEASURES.

I.—BRITISH INDIAN TABLES.

MONEY

Silver is the legally constituted medium of exchange in all money transactions throughout the British Indian Possessions. Gold coin is a legal tender at a fixed value of 16 rupees for the Gold-mohur of Calcutta, and 15 rupees for the gold rupee of Madras and Bombay but it is not demandable in payment, and is left to find its current value in the market.

An order in council was promulgated January 1841 authorizing officers in charge of public treasuries freely to receive gold coins struck in conformity with the provisions of Act XVII of 1835 establishing the 15 Rupee piece. This continued till December 1852 when the swelling tides of California and Australia began to pour their rich treasures over the globe, when an apprehension that India would be inundated with gold, the proclamation of 1841 was hastily rescinded and gold henceforth debarred from entrance into any of the public treasuries.

The entire Bank-note circulation of the three Presidencies was calculated in 1858 at 1½ millions sterling of which amount the Bank of Bengal had in circulation about one million sterling or one karor of rupees.

		Value Sterling
		£ 0 0s 0½d.
3 Pie	= 1 Pie	0 0 0½
12 Pie	= 1 Paisa or ¼ anna	0 0 0½
16 Annas	= 1 Anna	0 0 1½
15 Rupees	= 1 Rupee*	0 2 0
16 Rupees	= 1 Gold Rupee	1 10 0
16 Rupees	= 1 Gold Mohur	1 12 0
100,000 Rupees	= 1 Lakh	10 000 0 0
100 Lakhs	= 1 Karor	1 000 000 0 0

* The value of a Rupee is generally assumed as equal to 2s sterling. At the Calcutta Mint price of silver it is worth 2s 0-085d at the Commercial par of Exchange is 11 5½d and at the London Mint price of silver it is worth 1s 11 0½d.

The Rupee weighs 180 grains troy or 1 tola, and consists of 11 parts of silver and 1 of alloy. The Gold Rupee is of the same weight and standard. The Copper coinage are the half anna weighing 200 grains the quarter anna or panna 100 grains the half panna, 50 grains and the pua 33½ grains.

In Bombay accounts are still kept in Rupees, quarters and rases 20 rases making one anna.

In Madras, accounts were formerly kept in Star Pagodas fanams and cash

80 Cash	= 1 Fanam or panam
42 Fanams	= 1 Star Pagoda, Hun or Varaha

The pagoda was of gold 10½ carats fine, and intrinsically worth 7s 5½d. but valued at 4 Rupees.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The British-Indian weights established by Regulation VII of 1833 and now for upwards of a century in use in Bengal, were founded on the tola of 180 grains as a unit.

1 — BENGAL WEIGHT

		67½ drs	Av	780	grs. Troy
4 Siki or quarters.	= 1 Tola	67½		1½	oz
5 Tola	= 1 Chhatāq	337½		7½	oz
4 Chhatāq	= 1 Panna	1350		30	lb
4 Panna	= 1 Sér or Sear	5400		120	lb
5 Sér	= 1 Pannari	10800		240	lb
6 Pannari, or 40 Sér	= 1 Māq or māund	86400		100	lb

The standard sér weighs 80 tola or rupees

The told weighs 11·6028 French grammes the mdy, 37 3243 kilogrammes and the gramme weighs 0·06673526 told.

Also 35 sérs are equal to 72 lbs. avoirdupois and 49 máqs are equal to 86 cwt.

The Factory weight, adopted by the Bengal Government in 1787, was subdivided as in Bádr weight, only lighter 49 of any denomination of Bádr weight, being equal to 54 of the same denomination of Factory weight and 1½ Factory máqs being equal to 1 cwt., or 1 Factory máq equal to 74½ lbs. or 1 cwt Hence 1 Factory máq = 0·9014074 Bádr máq It is now disused

In Bombay the following Local Weights are still used —

4 Dhan, or yav	= 1 Raktion or Gánj	2 1367	gr	av	·01182	tola
8 Raktion	= 1 Masba	8 5069	"	"	·09452	"

40 Sér	= 1 Máq	28	lb.	"	1088½	"
20 Máqs	= 1 Kandi	560	lb.	"	6 90661	Imp máq

The British Indian or Imperial máq is 2·0387755 Bombay máqs, and the Bombay máq is 0·3402778 Imp máqs

At Poona

5 Sér	= 1 Pander	9 857	lbs	av	4 791	Imp Sér
8 Pander	= 1 Máq	78 858	"	"	35 329	"
9 Máq or 120 Sér	= 1 Pallá	236 57	"	"	2 875	" máq

The sér is 80 Ankhshí rúpees or 76·658 standard tolas. Kachcha máqs of 12½ and 14 sérs are also used in the district.

At Kurrachi

4 Kasira	= 1 Dokra	7½	drs	av	1 060	tola.
4½ Dokras	= 1 Anna	2	oz	"	4 861	"
72 Dokras or 16 Annas	= 1 Sér Pakká	2	lbs	"	77 778	"

100 Bombay Máqs					35	Kurrachi Máq
1 Bombay Khandi					7	Kurrachi Máq
1 Poriti Máq					18½	Kurrachi Sér.

The Kurrachi weights approach very nearly to the British-Indian, and were probably intended to be the same 36 Kurrachi sérs (or máqs) are equal, by the above table to 35 Bri ish-Indian of the same denomination hence

1 British-Indian máq	= ⅓ or 1·02967 Kurrachi máqs and.
1 Kurrachi máq	= ⅔ or 0·97222 British Indian máq.

The Surat Sér within the last 30 years, consisted of 8½ Surat tolas of 18½ 2 grains, and the máq consequently weighed about 37½ lbs avoirdupois the standard tola seems to have been substituted, and the sér now weighs only 14 4 oz., and the máq 86 lbs. avoirdupois Hence 7 Surat sérs or máqs = 9 Bombay sérs or máqs and—

1 Surat sér = 0·4376 Imp. sér, 1 Imp. sér = 2½ Surat Sér.

At Madras

	1 Sér	1 lb	aver	24 804	tola.
5 Sér	= 1 Yá	34 lb	"	121 528	"
6 ⅓ or 40 Sér	= 1 Máq	26 lb	"	972½	"
20 Máqs	= 1 Khandi	500 lb	"	6·0764	Imp máq.

The Madras máq is 0·303819 British Indian máqs, and the Brit Ind. or Imp. máq is 3·291422 Madras máq.

The Mangaim for pearls is 6 grains. 18 Mad. Chown=65 Bombay Chows.

The Pagoda Weight=52 64 grs. m.

2.—NATIVE GOLDSMITH AND JEWELLERS' WEIGHTS.

	1 Dhan	$\frac{1}{4}$ gr Troy
4 Dhan	= 1 Rati	$1\frac{1}{2}$ " "
8 Rati	= 1 Masba	15 " "
12 Masba	= 1 Tola	180 " "

A Dhan is 0.46875 gr troy or 0.0803745 French grammes. Masbas, rati dhans are employed in the native evaluation of assay of the precious metals thus "10 masbas fine," signifies 10-12ths pure, or the same as "10 oz. touch."

3.—MEASURES OF LENGTH

The gas or unit of lineal measure not only differs in different provinces of India, but also in the same province for different purposes. The English yard, however is rapidly becoming the only standard unit, especially where English education has obtained a firm footing

8 Jan	= 1 Angli	2 inch
4 Angli	= 1 Mutthi	3 "
12 Angli	= 1 Big'hath	9 "
2 Big'hath or 24 Ang.	= 1 Hāth or Cubit	18 "
2 Hāth	= 1 Gaz or yard	3 feet.
4 Hāth	= 1 Danda	2 yds
2000 Danda	= 1 Kos or Kros	4000 yds.
4 Kros	= 1 Yojan	$9\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

In Bombay the half bath is called Vēṭ and the measuring rod or Kathi for land, according to Jervis, is 94 feet In Gujarat 5 bath make 1 Vaso or Kathi

The Bengal kos contains only 1 000 danda or dhanā In surveying, 80 Hāth = 1 Rassi

In the N W P —Delhi Lodhiana Ferozepur and part of Berar —33 inches=1 Hāth gaz, 3 H gaz=1 Baps or gaudh, and 20 baps=1 Jarib In Benares and Ghazipur the gaz used by Mr Duncan in the settlements of 1795 was 33 6 inches In Orissa the padika or rod is 10 4355 feet In Tirhāt the lagi is 92 feet and in Jynteah the dastidari bath is 18 87 inches, and 16 batha make 1 null.

In Bombay—for Cloth.

2 Angali	= 1 Tard	$1\frac{1}{2}$ inch
24 Tard	= 1 Gaz	27 "

4.—MEASURES OF SURFACE.

In Bengal the following are used —

2 Square Hatha	= 1 Gaudh	2½ sq ft
20 Gaudh	= 1 Chhatāpk	6 sq yds.
16 Chhatāpk	= 1 Katihā	80 "
20 Katihā	= 1 Bighā	1600 , "

The Bengal bighā is $\frac{1}{16}$ or 0.3805785 of an acre

The Benares and Ghazipur Bighā contains 3,600 square Benares gaz or 3,136 square yards, or 647984 acre.

In Bombay Poona, &c

34½ Square Hatha	= 1 Kathi
30 Kāthryō	= 1 Paqd, or Vaso.
20 Paqd	= 1 Bighā
120 Bighā	= 1 Chahār

If the Kathi of 64 hatha be exactly 94 feet this Bighā will contain 3927½ sq yds. = 0.811857 acre but Jervis says 3926½ sq yds, giving 83 35 sq ft. for the square kathi instead of 88 36

In Gujarat

20 Khunt	= 1 Padtal
20 Padtal	= 1 Padat.
20 Padat	= 1 Vāhvām
20 Vāhvām	= 1 Vaso
20 Vaso	= 1 Vāgha, Bighā or Dōri

In the N W Provinces,—Delhi Patna, Shahabad, Saran, Bhagalpur, and Mongyr the high of 8600 square Nahi gas=3025 sq yards or 0 625 acre prevail, and is divided as follows —

20 Uzwani or Nanwani	= 1 Saswani	24 5025	sq in
20 Saswani or Tanwani	= 1 Kachwani	3 40812	sq ft
20 Kachwani	= 1 Burwani	7 56125	sq yds
20 Burwani	= 1 Bawa	1514	" "
20 Bawa	= 1 Bigha	3025	" "
1 Acre = 16 Delhi bigha
The Orissa bigha is 1 acre	= 4840	sq yds
The Tihât bigha is 400 sq lagi	= 4225	" "	= 6 2934 acre.

5—LIQUID AND DRY MEASURES

India, properly speaking does not possess dry or liquid measures. Where these are employed they represent the séer or the máp weight. The value of any vessel of capacity rests solely on the weight contained in it. In S and W India an equal mixture of the principal grains is taken and a vessel formed to hold a given weight of it.

In Bengal, the following are used for grain—the conversion into English measures being derived from the capacity of a vessel holding a má of water or $1\frac{1}{2}$ bushels.

5 Chhatáka	= 1 Kúñki	11 407	c in	0 5143	pts
16 Chhatáka	= 1 Séer	57 087		1 8407
4 Kúñki	= 1 Rak	71 8	"	2 0571
4 Rak or 5 Ser	= 1 Páh or drón	290 186		8 2224
8 Rak	= 1 Mán	581 40		8 2226	gal
20 Rak	= 1 Sháh	1453 72		20 5714	"

At Bombay

2 Tipis	= 1 Séer	10 4092	c in	114	oz av
4 Séers	= 1 Pahi	77 6367		24	lbs
16 Pahi	= 1 Phara, or Fara	1242 4		444	"
6 Phara or Fara	= 1 Khandi	905 4		3044
25 Fara	= 1 Mada	8544	c ft	10	cwt.

For Salt in Bombay

	= 1 Adhvái	4 11745	pints
104 Adhvái	= 1 Phari, or Fari	57679	gall
160 Phari	= 1 Ago	72 474	bush
16 Ago	= 1 Háo	144948	qrs.

The Fara for salt contains 1007 41 cub inches and there is a séer for liquids of 60 tolas, or about 42 78 cub. in. that is 1 2743 pint.

At Poona.

8 Chiptap	= 1 Séer	3 832	Stand. tolas
4 Séers	= 1 Pahi	4 882	seers.
1 Pahi or 16 séers	= 1 Máp	45 983
4 Máp, or 120 ser	= 1 Pahi	8 4467	" Máp
8 Pahi	= 1 Khandi	27 50	"

4 Chautham	= 1 Pahi.
4 Pahi	= 1 Tot
4 Tota	= 1 Kadi
4 Kadi	= 1 Mundi
12 Mundi or 48 Kadi	= 1 Karwar

At Madras.

8 Olincks	= 1 Padi..	98 75 c in
8 Padi	= 1 Mercal	750 "
8 Mercals	= 1 Parah	8750 "

The Garce for Grain is 12½ mēas or 820 lbs avoird = 3½ Brit Ind mēas

6.—MEASURES OF TIME.

The Hindūs reckon by a lunar year for religious, and by a sidereal year for civil purposes. The year begins when the sun enters the first constellation of the Hindu Zodiac, which at present happens about the 12th of April—in Malayala, or from Mangalore to Cape Comorin, however the year commences when the sun enters Kanya (Virgo) answering to the month Aswin, which generally happens about the 15th September

	days.	hours.	minutes.	seconds
The exact length of the sidereal year is	365	5	4	10.38
By the Surya Siddhanta it is	365	5	13	36.58
By the Arya Siddhanta , ,	365	5	12	30
By the Brahma Siddhanta "	365	5	12	0
By the Parnasara Siddhanta	365	5	12	31.4

And since the Gregorian year has an average length of 365d 5h 49m. 12s the commencement of the Hindu year will fall a day later every 62 or 63 years.

The Hindu month is the time the sun takes to pass through one-twelfth of the Zodiac, and consequently varies in length from 29d 8h 21m when the earth is in perihelion to 31d 14h 30m when it is in aphelion. The civil differs from the astronomical account only in rejecting fractions of a day each civil year and month being accounted to begin at sunrise instead of the exact time of the Sun's entering into the respective signs and if the fraction exceed 30 ghatis or ½ day the civil day or month is accounted to begin one day later than the astronomical.

INDIAN MEASURES OF TIME.

	1 Pal	24 seconds
60 Pal	= 1 Ghari	24 minutes.
7½ Ghari	= 1 Pahar or prahar	3 hours.
8 Pahar or 60 ghari	= 1 Din	1 day
7 Din	= 1 Hafta ..	1 week
20 Din	= 1 Mahina ..	1 month
12 Mahina	= 1 Baras	1 year
The Hindu year	= 1 00004. Gregorian year
The Gregorian Year	= 0.999968 Hindu year

The Mohammedans reckon by a lunar year consisting of months of 30 and 29 days alternately and intercalate a day eleven times in 30 years.

The lunar year is 354d 8h 48 57m and a year of the Hajira is 354d 8h 48m

Hence a year of the Hajira = 0.979223 Gregorian year

And a Gregorian year = 1.030681 of the Hajira,

We may find the Christian date from that of the Hajira by deducting 3 per cent from the latter and then adding 621 54 for the date A. D. of the end of the Musliman year or more correctly by multiplying the Hajira date by $\frac{10}{11}$ and adding 621 54—thus $1274 \times \frac{10}{11} + 621 54 = 1240 04 + 621 54 = 1861 58$, which shews that the year A H 1274 ended about the middle of 1862

A Sovereign weighs 123 $\frac{1}{2}$ or 123.274 grains troy and consists of 22 parts of gold and 2 of copper. The Standard Silver Coin consists of 37 parts of silver and 3 of copper. The florin weighs 174 $\frac{1}{2}$ grains troy, and the shilling 87 $\frac{1}{2}$ grains. The penny was $\frac{1}{4}$ part of a pound avoirdupois of copper, or 291 $\frac{1}{2}$ grains troy but the copper coins have just been replaced by the new bronze coinage, which is lighter.

At the Calcutta mint price of silver a shilling is equal to 7 s. 11 87 p at the Commercial par of Exchange, to 8 s. 2 p. and at the London mint price of silver to 8 s. 4.004 p.

24 Hours	= 1 Day 1 dia
7 Days	= 1 Week
4 Weeks	= 1 Lunar month

Every year of the Christian era of which the date is divisible by 4, without a remainder is a Leap year except those centuries which are not divisible by 4. Thus 1768 and 1866 were Leap years, because the numbers 1768 and 1866, are divisible by 4 without remainder but the years 1800, 1900, are not Leap years, because the centuries 18 and 19 are not so divisible, without remainder. In 400 years there are 97 Leap years. The Calendar is called the Gregorian, from Pope Gregory XIII who introduced it in 1562. It is used by all the nations of Europe except Russia. The Gregorian year is 365d 5 hrs 48 m 24 sec.

With the exception of July and August both of which have 31 days, the months are alternately long and short. In Bissextile or Leap years February has 29 days, in common years only 28 days.

The Months are—

1 January	31 days	7 July..	31 days.
2 February	28 or 29 "	8 August	.. 31 "
3 March	31 "	9 September ..	30 "
4 April.. .. .	30 "	10 October	31 "
5 May	31 "	11 November ..	30 "
6 June	30 "	12 December	31 "

The days in each month may be remembered from the lines —

Thirty days are in September,
April, June, and still November
All the rest have thirty-one,
Saving February alone,
Which hath twenty-eight days clear
And twenty-nine in each Leap year

MILITARY FURLOUGH REGULATIONS

G O No 75 of 6th December 1854—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to republish the following General Order by the Most Noble the Governor General in Council No 1150 dated Fort William 17th November 1854—

"The Honorable the Court of Directors having transmitted to the Government of India further explanatory instructions regarding the Furlough Regulations published in Government General Order No 110 of the 1st of February 1854 the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to annul that General Order and to promulgate in connection therewith the Rules which have been laid down by the Honorable the Court for regulating Furlough and Leave of Absence—

"With the view of adapting the Regulations to the present increased facilities of communication and to correct a serious practical anomaly in them to deter Officers from resorting to the practice which may be most conducive to the restoration of their health when a leave of absence is required for that purpose the following Rules are established and are to have effect from the 1st February 1854—

1. All Regimental Officers in the Service on the 1st February 1854 who prefer retaining what may be termed the old system of the old Regulations, may do so provided they signify their wish to that effect when they next appear in public before the Government of India and on what day they leave the Service. Officers who make this declaration will not be entitled to any other choice but will be afterwards subject to the new or old Regulations, according to their selection—

Paragraph 4.—I have to inform you that it has been decided that those Officers who have been allowed to count their leave on sick certificates as service for Pension, will be ineligible to a Furlough, on private affairs, until they have served six years in India from the date of their return to duty.

G. O. No. 673, 17th August 1860.—Under Instructions from Government the Commander in Chief directs that application from Officers of the Bombay Army for Furlough to Europe on private affairs, shall be accompanied by a statement in duplicate, in the following form, the columns Length of Service and periods of absence on Furlough or Medical Certificate only will be filled in at the Office of the Adjutant General of the Army. All other details must be entered at the Head Quarters of Regiments.

In the instance of Officers proceeding to Europe on medical certificates, Officers Commanding Regiments on the receipt of the General Order granting the leave will prepare and immediately transmit to the Deputy Adjutant General, similar statements relating to the Officers concerned.

Officers Commanding Regiments are required to prepare and keep a Record Book of the service of the Officers under their respective commands, in order that they may at all times be prepared to transmit the statements in question which the Secretary of State for India requires on an Officer proceeding to Europe.

Blank Forms of these Statements will be furnished from the Adjutant General's Office, and renewed from time to time on the applications of Commanding Officers.

" 7. The second Furlough of two years will only be granted after ten years' service in India from the date of its return to duty after the first Furlough of two years. These Furloughs are not to be cumulative under any circumstances, but are limited to two years. Officers who have taken leave of absence on sick certificate in Europe or elsewhere beyond sea, will be ineligible to a Furlough on private affairs until they have served six years from their last return to duty. This rule does not apply to short leaves to sea. (See Orders following Rules 20 and 21.)

G O C 3rd July 1855.—With reference to Rules 6 and 7 of the revised New Furlough Regulations, the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to notify that under a decision passed by the Government of India Officers who may have availed themselves previously to the 1st February 1855 of Furlough to Europe, on private affairs, with pay after ten years' service in India, will in the event of their adopting the New Furlough Rules, be entitled after completing ten years' additional service, to a second Furlough, with pay under the provisions of Rule 7 for two years, deducting therefrom such period in excess of two years as they may have been previously absent on Furlough with pay.

G O C 23rd August 1855.—With the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council the following decisions of the Government of India, on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules, are published to the Army—

Question.

" Are the periods of ten and twenty years' service in India, which will entitle Officers, under the New Furlough Rules, to Furloughs on private affairs to Europe or elsewhere beyond sea, with pay to be understood to include all leaves of absence in India or are all such leaves (excepting only the period of leave of one month in 12) to be reckoned against service towards Furloughs on private affairs with pay?

Decision.

The ten years' service in India, after which an Officer is entitled to a Furlough is understood to include all leaves in India. The second Furlough of two years is only granted after ten years' service in India from the date of return to duty after the first Furlough of two years.

" All leaves in India are counted as service, except for Retiring Pension, for which only a portion of an Officer's (total) leave in and out of India can be so reckoned.

G O C No. 560, of 16th July 1856.—The Honorable the Court of Directors, in their letter No. 56, of the 23rd April 1856, have communicated the following decision regarding Nos. 6 and 7 of the New Furlough Rules published in Government General Order No. 1154, dated the 17th November 1854—

" Officers who take their first Furlough after twenty years' service in India, may take their second Furlough after an additional service of five years from the date of their last return to duty."

" 8. All grants of Furlough on private affairs are subject to the exigencies of the public service and to the Regulations framed for the preservation of the efficiency of each Regiment, by limiting the number of absences.

G O C No. 364, of 15th April 1857.—Under the authority of the Honorable the Court of Directors, the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council is pleased to extend to Officers generally at the three Presidencies, the privilege granted to Officers at Moultan and Peshawar of being allowed, when the demands of the Service will permit, temporary leave, without pecuniary loss, or loss of service, for sixty days consecutively in the course of each year or of thirty days consecutively in each half year as may be preferred by them.

G O C 13th August 1853.—Although privilege leave for sixty days (consequently it is granted) it does not authorize Officers commanding Divisions or Forces to grant leave in excess of the periods laid down in Section XXVI para. 327 of the Appendix Jameson's Code. Applications for leave exceeding thirty days must be submitted for the sanction of His Excellency.

G O C No 46 of 1862.—Officers employed in the Military Department are not allowed to go to Europe or elsewhere out of India on privilege leave without the sanction of Government.

G O C No. 55 of 1862.—The practice of announcing in General Orders the grant of privilege leave is discontinued, and restricted to abandonment in Division or Separate Brigade Orders. Applications for this leave in excess of 30 days to be forwarded as heretofore to the Adjutant General of the Army, who will confer thereon the Commander-in-Chief's decision, returning them to the submitting Officer.

Officers holding Staff or other detached appointments may be allowed Furlough for a period of six months, without losing their appointments; but during that period they will not be entitled to any portion of their Staff salary which will be drawn in full by the Officers occupying for them.

G O C 23rd January 1855.—The Honorable the Court of Directors have been pleased to decide that Rule 9 of the revised New Furlough Regulations is not applicable to Officers proceeding on Furlough to Europe or elsewhere beyond sea, whose service in India may fall short of the periods specified in Rules 6 and 7 and that Furlough can be granted to such Officers only under the special provisions of Article "a" Section XXVI, page 577 of Jameson's Code which is to be considered as still in force.

G O C No. 312, of 11th April 1856.—Letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 8, dated 23rd January 1856.—

Letter No 112 dated 24th Sept 1856

Government forward correspondence relative to certain questions connected with the New Furlough Regulations and request to be informed as to claims of an Officer to the refund of his Furlough on private affairs when he has been already absent on leave to England on public affairs for six months.

Para B. We have to state in reply to your enquiry that an Officer proceeding on leave to England for six months, retaining his appointment or otherwise is not to be considered as having taken his authorized Furlough after ten or twenty years as the case may be but may with your permission be allowed at any time to take the remainder of the two years authorized Furlough on private affairs.

G O C No 548, of 19th July 1856.—The Honorable the Court of Directors, in their letter No 56 of the 23rd April 1856, have communicated the following decision regarding No. 9 of the New Furlough Rules published in Government General Order No. 1150, dated the 17th November 1854.—

"Absence for six months, under this Rule, does not preclude an Officer from taking his Furlough to Europe after ten years service."

30 All Officers, whether Staff or Regimental, while on Furlough on private affairs, will be entitled to Furlough pay only.

G O C 25th May 1859.—Applications from Military Officers for Furlough on private affairs beyond Presidency limits, to be embodied in the following form and forwarded without accompaniment through Station and Divisional Authorities for counter-signature to the Officer in charge Adjutant General's Office Presidency for the orders of His Excellency.—

G G O No. 493 of 1860.—Officers proceeding on medical certificate not required to furnish No Demand Certificates.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE ON SICK CERTIFICATE

11. Leave of absence on sick certificate will be granted for a term not exceeding eighteen months whether it be to any place in Europe, or elsewhere out of India.

G G O No. 380 23rd July 1861.—It appears to be commonly supposed that if an Officer obtain a medical certificate for a Furlough to Europe he is entitled to the maximum period

The practice of Medical Boards has tended to confirm this erroneous supposition

The period of eighteen months is a maximum (under the New Furlough Regulations) and fifteen months is a maximum within which an Officer may retain a Staff Appointment during such absence.

The prospective extension of these periods announced in paragraph 86 of the G O by the Government of India, No 332 of 16th April renders it peculiarly necessary to remind Medical Officers that it is their duty to limit the period named in the medical certificate to the necessities of the applicant in respect of recovery of health alone

12. Extensions of such leave may be granted as at present, on production of medical certificates, for further periods not exceeding eighteen months in the whole

"13. An Officer holding a staff or other detached appointment will be allowed to be absent on sick certificate in England, or elsewhere beyond sea, for a period of fifteen months, without losing his appointment, and during the first six months only of such absence he will be entitled to draw half the Staff salary of his appointment, the Officer officiating for him drawing the remaining half salary during the first six months, and the whole salary during the remainder of the time.

"14. An Officer's claim to half Staff salary for six months as sanctioned in the preceding Rule will not be affected by his subsequently returning from the Service to Europe or elsewhere

G G O, No 429, 20th August 1861.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 25th June 1861 No 565, is republished —

"His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve that absence from India on authorized leave within the periods allowed by the New Furlough Regulations shall not debar an Officer whose efficiency has been proved and certified to the full satisfaction of the Governor General in Council of permanent or temporary promotion

In such cases the absent Officer will not, till he resumes charge of his duties, have any claim to the salary of the higher Office which will be drawn by the Acting Officer "

G G O No 395, of 28th April 1856.—Under instructions from the Honorable the Court of Directors, the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council is pleased to publish the following Notification —

"The grant of leave of absence to Staff Officers on medical certificate with half Staff Allowances for six months, and with the privilege of returning to their offices at their absence from India be not prolonged beyond fifteen months, is bestowed by the Honorable Court in order to enable such officers to regain their health and in the expectation that they will be thereby qualified to render additional service to the Government. But if leave of absence be taken merely to run out a prescribed period of service, and without any intention of returning to duty the principle on which the rule is founded is infringed and the indulgence of the Honorable Court is abused. Wherefore the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council hereby notifies for general information, that if there be an avowed intention on the part of an Officer not to return to duty or if the Government have valid grounds for concluding that the Officer has no intention to return to duty the indulgence of leave on sick certificate, retaining office will not be granted in future."

"15. No portion of command Allowance Medical Staff Salary or other similar allowance, which under the Old Rules was inadmissible to Officers absent from their Corps or Stations at the Cape or elsewhere will be allowed to absent Officers under these Regulations.

"16. All Officers whether Staff or Regimental, while on leave of absence on sick certificate will be entitled for a period of six months to the same rate of Indian pay and allowances as was allowed under the Old Regulations to Officers proceeding to the Cape on medical certificate, and for the remaining period of their leave they will receive Furlough pay only.

"17. If the leave on sick certificate be extended, Furlough pay will be continued but under no circumstances for a longer period than three years altogether from the commencement of the absence.

G. O. C. 30th October 1858.—Officers who have had an undue proportion of leave and may be proceeding to Europe on sick certificate will if requisite, be subject to examination as to their fitness for further service.

G. O. C. 30th August 1859.—An Officer proceeding sick to England, to show the statement of his case to the Surgeon of the ship in which he is a passenger for the Surgeon's guidance. Such Officers allowed, if necessary a soldier to accompany them to Bombay.

"STAFF OFFICERS."

"18. The term Staff Officers applies to all Officers holding Staff or detached appointments, Military (General or Regimental), Political, or Civil, also to General Officers commanding Divisions, Members of the Medical Board, Superintending Surgeons, and others who under the Old Rules were entitled to draw half Staff Allowance when absent at the Cape (See G. O. C. No. 111 of 30th January 1856 following Rule 31).

"19. Staff Officers absent on leave beyond the period stated in Rules 9 and 13, respectively cannot retain their appointments and allowances, except on special grounds to be sanctioned by the Government of the Presidency. Any such special grant of leave is to be reported at once to the Honorable the Court of Directors, with the reasons for it and to be subject to their approbation.

"20. The privilege of retaining Staff appointments during leave of absence on sick certificate or on Furlough on private affairs, will not be available a second time, if the fresh leave is on sick certificate, until an Officer has been three years, or if on private affairs until he has been six years, in the discharge of the duties of his appointment from the date of last return to it.

G. O. C. 27th August 1855.—With the sanction of Government, the following decision of the Government of India is published to the Army:—

"Under the New Furlough Rules Furlough granted without pay or other privileges, does not bar privileged leave hereafter."

21. This Rule, however (No. 20), does not apply to leaves of absence whether on sick certificate or on private affairs, in India, or for brief periods to Ceylon, the Mauritius, or other places out of India.

G. O. C. 12th July 1856.—The Government of India has fixed these months as the maximum period which is to be understood by the terms "short leave" and "leave for brief periods" used in Rules 7 and 21 of the New Furlough Regulations.

22. Officers commanding Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, and Officers generally in employment, will be allowed leave out of India, under the same Rules, with respect to allowances and issue of command or office as regulated the grant of leave to the Cape to such Officers under the Old Regulations, except as to the duration of those advantages: the time for their continuance being subject to the provisions of the New Regulations.

" DATES OF FURLOUGH AND ADVANCES OF PAY

23. The period of Furlough on private affairs, or leave of absence on sick certificate is to be calculated from the date of the departure from India of the ship in which the Officer proceeds.

G O C No 363, 21st March 1861.—The Secretary of State for India has intimated that henceforth, the permission to return to duty granted to Officers will hold good for three months from the date of such permission provided they embark for India within that period.

24. Advances of pay and allowances, Staff and Regimental to Officers proceeding on leave of absence on sick certificate who may be entitled to them will be made in India for three months from date of embarkation. Payments in continuation will be made in England at the rates of exchange fixed annually for repayment of advances made on account of Her Majesty's Government. Furlough pay will continue to be issued in advance for six months when required by Officers obtaining Furlough on private affairs.

G O C No 194 of 27th February 1856.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to notify to the Army that it has been decided by the Government of India that every Officer proceeding to a British Colony within Indian limits is entitled to the advance of pay authorised in the first clause of Rule 24 of the New Furlough Regulations but that such Officer shall be required to appoint an agent in India to draw the arrears which may accrue to him during Furlough on either sick certificate or private affairs. If such an agent be not appointed payment of the arrears shall be postponed till the return of the Officer to India and every agent shall be required to give a sufficient guarantee for the refund of any payment that may fail to be recovered.

25. The existing Regulations regarding Passage-money to Officers are not affected by these Rules.

26. The Certificates issued to Officers who are granted Furloughs on private affairs or leave of absence on sick certificate, are to specify the time each Officer has been absent on leave within Indian limits as well as the time of his previous absence in Europe but will not include the periods allowed for proceeding to the Presidency or port of embarkation and to enable Officers to rejoin their Regiments or Stations after their return to India nor the leave of one month's absence in six months as authorised by the Regulations. The last Pay Certificate of all Officers proceeding to England on sick certificate is to specify the rate of Regimental pay and allowances and Staff salary to which they would have been entitled under the Old Regulations if proceeding to sea on medical certificate. This information is necessary in order that no difficulty may arise in the Pay Department of the India House in adjusting the several payments which may be due. (See various Orders following Rule 31.)

G O C 27th April 1856.—With the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the following decisions of the Government of India, on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules, are published to the Army:—

Question.

Is it only such leave (not exceeding thirty days in six months) as may be granted under the special Regulation contained in G O G I No. 241 dated the 20th March 1851 that is to be allowed to count as service; or will Officers who may be absent from their Stations, on leave granted to them under the ordinary Regulations, for short periods to sea, or for from one day to six months, between the 1st January and 1st July and purser &c, whether on private affairs or sick certificates, be entitled to have a period not exceeding thirty days of such leave counted as service?

Decision.

Any short leaves are not to reckon against an Officer's length of service but all leaves announced in General Orders, which in the aggregate exceed the periods laid down in paragraphs 32 to 35 of the Government General Order No. 1150 of the 1st November last, count against service and no deduction can be made from such leave except for the period allowed an Officer preparatory to embarkation, and to enable him to rejoin his Corps or Station on his return to India.

"An Officer who has obtained leave for six months, or any other period in General Orders is not allowed to deduct the thirty days privilege leave which he might have taken without its being announced in General Orders. In such a case the whole period announced in General Orders will count against his service."

G O C. 1761 September 1855.—With the sanction of Government, the following decision of the Government of India, having reference to Rule 26 of the New Furlough Regulations, is published to the Army:—

Short leaves on private affairs for periods not exceeding thirty days which have been granted to officers in General Orders previously to 5th December 1854 are to be counted as privileged provided they do not exceed an aggregate of thirty days in each half year."

Art. 216 to 219 Sect. XXV 1st Appendix Jamson's Code.
Art. 174 to 182, Sect. XXXI 1st Jamson's Code page 438

Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to declare the following rules, obtaining under the Bengal Presidency to be applicable to this Presidency also from this date:—

"The thirty days privileged leave is to be calculated so as to include the day of return as one of leave, &c. if leave be granted on the 15th July the Officer must rejoin on the 13th of August."

"OFFICERS OF HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE."

"27 Officers of Her Majesty's Service in India, whether employed Regimentally or in Staff or detached situations, are entitled to the advantage above laid down in respect to allowances and tenure of office when on Furlough or leave of absence."

"28 In the case of Officers of Her Majesty's Service on Furlough on such certificate in England or elsewhere, who may retire or exchange into Regiments not on the Indian Establishment, the grant to these Officers of Indian Allowances will cease from the date of their retirement or exchange, if it take place before the expiration of six months from the date of quitting India."

G O C No. 169 of 1862.—Staff Surgeons proceeding on furlough cease to belong to the Indian Establishment, and have no claim to Indian allowances after date of quitting India.

PERIODS OF ABSENCE ALLOWED TO BE COUNTED AS SERVICE FOR RETIRING PENSIONS.

"29 In order that all Officers quitting India, on Furlough or sick certificate, may be placed on an exact equality as regards time the period allowed by Regulation for proceeding to the Presidency or to the nearest port of embarkation as well as the time to enable Officers to rejoin their Corps or Stations after their return to India, will be considered in the counting for service for the Retiring Pension. (See various Orders following 1st 13.

Both by sea and river the passage is estimated by country boat, and the month in which the longest passages occur has been taken as the standard for the average length of passage.

The "fair season" as regards sea or river passage from 1st Oct. to, and 1st March is estimated to commence on the 15th October and end on the 15th April.

The "fair season" as regards all other water passages, lasts from the 15th of October to the 15th of May.

When the distance is entirely by land ten miles per diem is allowed, without halts, by the nearest marching route.

G.O.C. 23rd June 1865.—With reference to the new Furlough Regulations, the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to direct that in future Officers not above the Regimental rank of Captain who may return from furlough or leave of absence beyond Presidency limits during the monsoon or who, being on sick leave within Presidency limits may be reported fit for duty during that season i.e. between the 1st June and 1st October shall be permitted in the event of their own Corps being too distant to admit of their at once rejoining to do duty until the latter date with Regiments at the Presidency or other Stations at or near which they may be at the time, unless they should obtain leave of absence in extension on private affairs.

Officers belonging to Regiments at Nasirah, who may be circumstanced as above will remain attached to other Corps until the 15th December.

G. O. O. No. 235 of 8th March 1856.—The Right Honourable the Governor in Council is pleased to announce that the following Rules will be observed in calculating the periods of Officers' absence on furlough in or beyond India:—

As respects furlough in India, the day of departure from a Regiment or appointment is one of leave and the day of return thereto is one of duty.

As respects furlough beyond India, the date of final departure from India, viz. that on which the vessel conveying the Officer from India puts out to sea, is reckoned as actual furlough, and the day on which he returns to his Presidency as one of duty.

G. O. O. No. 120 of 8th January 1857.—Under instructions from the Government of India, the Right Honourable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the rule promulgated in G. O. O. No. 236, dated 8th March 1856, regarding absence on furlough, shall be held applicable to privilege leave.

1st—All leave of over six months privileged which is granted to an Officer, is to be notified in the Military General Orders.

2nd—Every Order granting leave of absence is to express the date from which it is to commence and the date to which it is to extend.

3rd—Officers who have not availed themselves of the full period of leave granted to them are authorized to notify the circumstances with full particulars to the Adjutant General's Office at the Presidency by letter (postage paid), within one month from the expiration of the leave and with reference as is proper will then be made in the Furlough Register failing such Notification, the entire period of leave published in General Orders will be debited against their service for Pension.

4th—In order to ensure still further the correctness of the Register returns will be made by the Military Auditor General, and by the Civil Auditor half yearly showing the leave privileged and unprivileged which has been taken by Officers serving immediately under the orders of Government.

5th—No Officer is to quit his Station until leave is regularly granted him by the proper authority and all Officers are to return to their Stations within the term of leave granted to them failing which they will be considered as absent without leave, and be subjected to the penalties of that condition.

G O No. 230 of 8th March 1856.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to announce that the maximum period for which an Officer can be absent from his Regiment or appointment in private leave whether between musters or intervals of Muster is thirty days in each half year.

G O No. 956 of 22nd December 1856.—If an Officer obtain privileged leave for one month and in extension thereof obtain only month's leave on private affairs in the following month he is entitled to count the first month as privileged leave but in the case of an Officer obtaining leave to proceed to the Presidency preparatory to embark upon Furlough under the New Furlough Regulations, no portion of such preparatory leave can be treated as privileged leave.

Should an Officer who is on privileged leave not rejoin his Corps, but be absent in continuation on not more than six months' leave on private affairs, or one year and eleven months' leave on medical certificate he will retain his full salary or allowances for the thirty days of privileged leave which will also count as service but he will nevertheless forfeit all military allowances on completion of six months or two years' absence and may be reckoned from the date of his quitting his Corps or Station.

"22. Officers, to be entitled to retire on the full pay of their Regimental rank (under the Regulations of 1796) must have served twenty two years in India, out of which leaves of absence for two years in the aggregate, and not more, will be allowed to count as service for the Retiring Pension.

"23. Officers to be entitled to retire on the full pay of Captains and Majors (under the Regulations of 1835-37) must have served twenty and twenty four years respectively out of which time leaves of absence for two years in the aggregate and not more will be allowed to count as service.

"24. Officers, to be entitled to retire as Lieutenant Colonels, must have served twenty eight years, out of which leaves of absence for three years in the aggregate and not more, will be allowed to count as service.

"25. Officers, to be entitled to retire as Colonels, must have served thirty two years out of which leaves of absence for four years in the aggregate, and not more, will be allowed to count as service.

G O G No 401 of 1860—Officers of twenty-two years Indian service are entitled to retire on the pay of their Regimental rank. This privilege granted under the Regulations of 1796 and 1854 may in some cases, be rendered imperative by the Regulations of 1861 precluding them from claiming retirement till the next of the rank attained after two months from date of landing in England. The privilege may be retained in the rank of Officers who after twenty years Indian service (counting for Retiring Pension), return to Europe on leave and they are allowed to claim for retirement the benefits of any rank allowed prior to the expiration of twenty-two years service.

"26. The scale for Military Officers and Veterinary Surgeons of privileged Furlough and leave of absence as counting for the Retiring Pension will be as follows—

Years	Months
1	8	up 17 and under 20 years service
2	0	in 20, " "
3	0	in 25 " 30
4	0	in 30 and upwards.

"27. It is to be distinctly understood, that under no circumstances whatever will an Officer be permitted to retire on full pay until he has completed the full time of service above specified, whether he be in England at the close of his service or elsewhere.

G O G N 878 of 23rd September 1867—The following extract paras 18 and 19 of a Military letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No 123, dated 22nd July 1857 is published for general information—

18. By the Regulations established for the promotion of Lieutenant Colonel to the rank of Colonel after three years service it is provided that no longer part of than one month in each year or a total of three months in three years or six months in six years shall be allowed to reckon whether the leave shall have been spent in India or out of the country except in cases of wounds or illness contracted by service in the field, duly certified by a Medical Board, when each case will be separately considered with reference to the time to be allowed.

19. In reply to the question now put to us we have much satisfaction in stating that we are prepared to extend the benefit of the expedient above proposed to the time required for retirement on full pay. We refer him to the benefit of the expedition must be duly certified by a Medical Board and be forwarded to us for our opinion, accompanied by the opinion of the Government and Commander in Chief of the Presidency to which the Officer belongs.

"28. The permitted time of absence may with the permission of the local Government, be taken at any time subject to these Regulations. If therefore at the end of twenty years service, of which a certain part had been passed on actual duty in India, an Officer should be on Furlough or at a certificate in Europe or elsewhere he will be entitled to retire on the full pay of a Colonel without returning to India, and so in the other terms of service for the higher Pensions. In like manner a Medical Officer on Furlough or at a certificate in Europe or elsewhere at the end of seventeen years service, fifteen years and four months of which had been passed on actual duty in India, will be entitled to retire on the lowest rate of Pension without returning to India; and so in the other terms of service for the higher Pensions.

G O No. 679 of 1859 — The following G O by the Governor-General in Council dated 8th July 1859 No 905 is published —

Under instructions from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, the following is substituted for G O No 106, of 30th May 1836 —

Officers retiring in England from the service shall be considered to have retired from the date of their application for leave to retire, or from the expiration of two years and a half from the date of the commencement of their furlough whichever shall first happen

Promotions in succession to casualties by death in England shall have effect from the date of demise or from the expiration of three years absence from India, whichever shall first happen

39 These Rules do not in any way affect the existing Regulations regarding the grant of leave in India, or for short periods to sea, whether on private affairs or on sick certificate except as to the periods of such absence being taken into calculation in the time allowed to count as service for retirement on full pay

G O C 27th April 1855 — With the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council the following regulations of the Government of India on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules, are published to the Army —

Questions

"Will all Officers (Staff and Regimental) who may proceed on leave to places in India, whether within or beyond the limits of their own Regiment be entitled to receive their Indian Allowances for a period not exceeding six months, if on private affairs and two years, if on medical certificate from the date of their quitting their respective Corps or Stations, as allowed to them under the Furlough Rules?"

"Will Officers holding Staff or other detached appointments who may so proceed on medical certificate be entitled to retain their appointments, and to receive half their Staff pay for period not exceeding two years, as under the Old Furlough Regulations?"

Will all Officers (Staff and Regimental) under the New Rules who may proceed on leave for short periods to sea, or for brief periods to Ceylon, the Mauritius, or other places out of India on private affairs be entitled to receive their Indian Allowances during their absence and if so, for what period from the date of their quitting their respective Corps or Stations?

Decisions

"It has been expressly declared in Rule 39 that the former Rules regarding the absence of Officers in India are not in any way affected by the New Regulations

An Officer may proceed to those places and which he could have visited on leave in India prior to the publication of the New Rules and he can retain an appointment during absence for six months on private affairs and for two years on medical certificate

Officers absent for short periods at sea retain their Indian allowances the Old Rules on this subject continuing in force

RULES FOR THE TRANSMISSION OF MESSAGES

I Messages are received for despatch at all hours, day and night, with exception of Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Good Friday, when the Office will be closed between the hours of 8 and 16h (or 4 p. m.)

II Messages tendered for transmission on ordinary days between 16h (or 6 p. m.) and 18h of the following day, and between 6h and 8h and 16h and 18h (or 4 p. m. and 6 p. m.) on the above-named Holidays, will be charged double the ordinary rate.

III Messages are transmitted by Telegraph between all the Stations enumerated in the accompanying list, at the rate of sixteen words for one Rupee for each distance of 400 miles or under. 2 Rupees for all distances between 400 and 800 miles, and so on.*

IV The distances are estimated by the direct Map line and not by the actual length of wire.

V On the main line no message however short, is sent for less than one Rupee.

VI For each word above 16 one anna additional is charged for each rate of distance thus for 16 words from Calcutta to Bombay (3 distances) the charge for 16 words or under is 3 Rupees. For 17 words 3 Rupees 9 annas.

VII For the delivery of Messages, at the rate of two annas per mile will be charged for all distances beyond two miles from the Telegraph Station. Fractions of a mile are charged as one unit.

VIII The names of sender and addressee are charged in the address. Initials count each as one word, and it is recommended that the Christian name should always be spelt in full. Compound names, such as M. Naughton O'Donnell, De lais Von Meyern, St. Clair count as one word, provided the prefix be no more than one syllable.

IX In the address of a message the words From To Mr &c Messrs and Co and all ordinary phrase designations such as Capt. Lieut Colonel, Lord, Bishop, Rajah, Vakil, &c. are passed free provided the designation be no more than two words, as Lieut. Col. Lieut. Col. Afliz designations are charged for word by word.

X From Bangalore from Mr Brown To Calcutta, to Lieut.-Col. Smith command ing 60th Rifles the words in italics are charged the others are sent free.

XI The names of towns from and to if Telegraph Stations, are also sent free but are charged for if not Telegraph Stations. Names of quarters or streets, or numbers of houses must be paid for. Messages addressed to large cities, such as Calcutta, Bombay and Madras should always have the residence of the addressee specified by street and number and Messages to such names as Smith Jones, Brown &c should have the Christian name or profession of the addressee to prevent misdelivery.

XII The day, hour and minute of the receipt of a message into a Telegraph Office for transmission is in every instance added to the message at the time it following immediately the text of the message and is telegraphed free of charge. Senders may date their messages if they think fit but the senders date will be charged for and will in view to avoid confusion if given at the end be transferred to the beginning of the text of the message.

XIII In the body of the message every word is charged. Slopes, inverted commas, and notes of interrogation are free.

XIV The accuracy of messages is not guaranteed, and the sender and receiver have to accept all risk arising from errors and delays.

XV Senders of messages are advised to use the shortest and most familiar words they can select. The more intelligible the message is, the greater is the probability of its being transmitted correctly.

XVI The accurate transmission of messages is rendered much more certain by their being repeated back from each repeating Station. This repetition is charged for at half price extra, and is advised in all messages of great importance.

XVII The errors which chiefly occur are in the numerals, such as sixteen sixty—thirteen, thirty owing to the sound and first three or four letters being similar. To obviate this it is recommended that in all financial or money messages the sum be given in two forms, halving or doubling the amount, thus, "Pay to my order Rs. 500 or half 1000. When this is done an error is of very rare occurrence."

* A single rate extra is charged on all messages between any station in Ceylon and the Continent of India.

XXI Messages in cipher are transmitted at the ordinary charge, but must be in numbers, and those written in full, as in a cheque, or in ordinary English words of concealed meaning. Figures are telegraphed as if written in full, as in a cheque, and charged for according to the number of words, thus, "Rupees fifteen hundred and sixty-four" count as six words.

XXII Should a message in cipher be tendered for transmission simultaneously with a message in ordinary language, the latter will take precedence of the former.

XXIII All messages must be in the English language.

XXIV The name of the sender must be written on the face of every message.

XXV When a message is delivered in an intelligible state, a refund of the cost of the portion rendered unintelligible will be made to the sender if application be made within three months of the date of despatch, provided the message has not been transmitted beyond the limits of India, its dependencies, or Ceylon, and within six months, in the case of messages for coast and beyond India, as Egypt or Europe. No refunds will be made irrespective of whether the message has been paid for at repetition price or not, but no refund will be given for any error in an unreplicated message arising from wrong figures being given, unless the precaution advised in No. XVI of these Rules shall have been adopted. Refunds on account of messages which have not reached their destination will be made subject to the above limits as respects time.

XXVI Refunds will also be made in all cases of non-delivery or unjustifiable delay of messages, whether repeated or not. By unjustifiable delay is meant that arising from neglect in the Office. When a message is detained by an interruption on any section of the line and is sent on by next post to the nearest Telegraph Station, the time occupied by the post is not allowed to count as delay in the Telegraph Department. Expresses are not started for private messages, but only for Mail News or Government despatches of great importance. But when an express is required for those purposes, no advantage is taken of the opportunity to send on all private messages on hand.

XXVII Complaints respecting errors or delays or neglect in the delivery of messages, and applications for refund should be addressed to the Director General of Telegraphs in India, Complaint Office, Calcutta. An exact copy of the message complained of and the receipt of the despatching Office should in all cases accompany the complaint.

XXVIII Private messages shall be despatched in the order of their receipt in the Telegraph Office. Should in any case messages be tendered simultaneously the sender shall have the precedence without reference to its relative importance.

XXIX No private message or messages of more than 200 words in all can be sent at one time by any direct line or firm and no second message by the same direct line or firm till after the lapse of three hours, unless the line be free and not required by any one else.

XXX The practice of sending messages by each line alternately where alternate lines are available as between Calcutta and Bombay has increased much dissatisfaction to the public, in consequence of messages bearing later dates arriving by the direct line before others sent between the same places, but which have gone by the alternative; we must cease and in future the alternative line must be used not in the event of interruption on the direct line.

The rule here published has been acted on as respects messages between Calcutta and Bombay since the 1st of August, and the results as regards the diminution of number of complaints of unexpected preference has been satisfactory. Under this arrangement it becomes necessary to define what are to be considered as the chief direct Telegraph routes throughout India. These are—

From Calcutta to Madras through Madraspoor

From Calcutta to Bombay through Agra.

From Madras to Bombay through Bangalore.

From Calcutta to Bally through Patna and Mirzapoor.

From Bombay to Lahore and Ferozpur through Hyderabad Sind.

The routes here named direct are not in every case direct as the route from Bombay to Lahore via Hyderabad Sind, is less direct than that via Agra, but it has been chosen as the route by which all messages from Bombay to Lahore or places to its north-west should be sent, in order to relieve the Indore line which has to carry the entire of the important messages between Calcutta and Bombay.

* The accidental omission of the word Not, causing in many cases the total change of the intended meaning of a message the word is always signalled in slow time twice over by the words Not are back by the receiver at each station. The same precaution is taken in signalling the words over and your.

XXVII Messages will be forwarded by post to places not having Telegraph Stations but only in registered letters the registration fee to be paid by the sender of the message.

XXVIII Messages will be received by post from Europe or elsewhere for transmission if money be deposited beforehand at the despatching Station sufficient to pay for the transmission. Such messages should always be addressed

"To the Assistant in charge,
— Telegraph Office,"
as per margin and not to the Superintendent. This mistake often causes the letter to be sent by post to the Head Quarters of the Department. All such letters should invariably have the words Telegraph Message for Despatch, written conspicuous outside.

XXIX Messages sent by post must be prepaid by Telegraph stamps and will be transmitted from the nearest Telegraph Station where the stamp will be cancelled by being written across by the Assistant in Charge.

XXX The stamped messages should be despatched marked conspicuously "Telegraph Message."

XXXI Adhesive Telegraph stamps will be procurable from the Civil Treasury and private vendors. They should be affixed on the face of the message so as to be inside when the message is folded up for transmission by the post. The usual postage must of course be paid in addition.

XXXII In cases of extreme pressure of business Assistants in charge of Offices may refuse to receive for despatch any messages beyond the number which experience shows may be cleared off within the day. The messages in such cases are not to be received and kept for despatch the following day but must be returned so as to prevent accumulation.

XXXIII In case of interruptions on any day Assistants in charge of Offices have the power to refuse the receipt of messages for transmission.

XXXIV When an interruption or any notice to that effect is to be posted conspicuous at the entrance of each Office and communicated to the Press for public information.

XXXV In every such case all persons tendering messages for places beyond the interrupted section, are to be informed of the interruption and not to deliver the message and requested that a refund will not be made in case of delay from this cause.

XXXVI The sender of a message may prepay the charge for a reply which must be limited to the number of words previously stated.

XXXVII Messages are not to be sent from stations where received by mail steamers or other vessels for despatch and addressed to individuals or firms or individuals but no message whether paid or bearing whether received for transmission from an individual until her name has been made known. Bearing messages will not be delivered to the addressee till a message has been received from him.

XXXVIII Assistants in charge of Telegraph Stations are authorized to refuse to transmit a message which may be considered decidedly objectionable in character. Should the character of the message be disputed the matter may be referred to a Secretary to Government if the dispute occur at the seat of a Government or to the Chief Civil Officer if at a provincial station.

XXXIX To secure secrecy as much as possible all persons not actually on duty in the Signal Room whether belonging to the Telegraph Department or not and without exception to Social rank in any case are strictly prohibited from entering the Signal Room. The only exception to this rule is for senders of messages who may be allowed to see their messages despatched if they attend the Office at the time of their turn for transmission.

XI Violation of secrecy on the part of any person in the Department will be punished by dismissal from the service, forfeiture of arrears of pay and a declaration in the official Gazette of the incapacity of the delinquent to serve the Government in any capacity. It is a violation of the law to mention the fact that any message has been received or despatched by any particular person or firm.

XII Service messages from all public functionaries must be paid for in cash prior to despatch, the rates being the same for distance and number of words as those charged to private individuals.

XIII Service messages have no right of precedence and take their turn of despatch with private messages, except in cases of pressing public emergency and importance when priority may be claimed on special grounds.

* The only exceptions to this rule are enumerated in special printed instructions issued to each Office.

XLIII The sums paid by public functionaries for the despatch of messages will be recovered from Government by the senders, in their own Departments, by contingent bills counter-signed as usual.

XLIV In certain emergent occasions of great importance the public functionaries named below have the power of "clearing the line," that is, of suspending the receipt and despatch of all other messages till the one for which the line is cleared has passed on —

The Governor General of India.

Governor of Bombay

Governor of Madras.

Governor of Ceylon.

Commanders-in-Chief India, Madras, and Bombay

Lieutenant Governors of Bengal, N. W. Provinces, and Punjab

Commissioners of Sind, Oude and Feroz and such other Commissioners, Residents

Political Agents, and Military Officers, as may receive the power from the Government of India by special order

Director of Telegraphs in India.

The messages so sent are however to be paid for in cash as in ordinary cases.

XLV Under orders of Government the following order of precedence will be observed in the transmission of messages of European news received by the mail steamers at Calcutta and Bombay. Messages addressed to the Government of India, messages addressed to the Government of Bombay, Madras and Ceylon, &c. &c.

XLVI No unpaid messages, except those on the actual business of the Telegraph itself as specified in the departmental Regulations, shall on any account whatever be transmitted. A violation of this rule will subject the Signaller or Assistant in Charge of the Station the message is sent from to dismissal from the regular service.

XLVII Messages received at a station are not delivered till after the following morning, unless marked urgent or obviously of an urgent nature or addressed to the newspaper press.

As a measure of convenience, and to prevent the waste certain to ensue from message forms being issued loose, such forms will hereafter be delivered, to those requiring them, bound together in books containing 100 messages each with counterfoil. Such books will be issued on written application only to public officers free to private persons on payment of one rupee per copy. Each book will have a printed "side title" pasted on it and on the inside of the cover facing the first message will be pasted a printed abstract of each of the Rules of the Department as it imports those for whose use the books are prepared so be acquainted with. These books are now available at the various Telegraph Offices and the issue of loose message forms is absolutely prohibited.

All messages for despatch should be directed to the Assistant in Charge of the Telegraph Office, and the envelope should be marked outside "Message for Despatch." It often happens that the Message is directed to the Superintendent, Deputy Superintendent, Agent, or other Officer who may be in some distant part of the country. Even in such a case, if it bears the mark Message for Despatch it is at once opened and all is well—but without this distinguishing mark it is of course forwarded in its address, and a delay of days or even weeks may result.

Private merchants must take their own measures for having their messages composed in accordance with the Telegraph rules, as transmission is not undertaken by any Officer or servant of the Department.

In future, when ascertaining the hour of the day or night in messages, the day will be considered as consisting of one cycle of 24 hours instead of two cycles of 12 hours each the hours afternoon being continued as 13, 14 and so on up to midnight or 24h, the new day commencing as 0h. Thus, fifteen minutes past 4 of the afternoon of the 12th November will be expressed as November 12d 16h 15m or more briefly November 12d 16-15h.

In all cases of messages deliverable on board vessels the charge for boat hire must be prepaid. The sums payable at Recruiting Offices as boat hire for ship messengers to be delivered at the undermentioned stations are as follow—Calcutta, Rs. 4; Manipalpatnam and Vengalpatnam, Rs. 8; Coimbatore and Oulart, Rs. 12 Hooghly Fort, Pambour Fort, Coles, Bombay, Goa, Surat, Victoria, and Kharwar 1 Rupee Pandicherry Rs. 1-2-6 Madras and Colombo, Rs. 1-3-6 Cawnpore, Rs. 2; Benger Rs. 2.

TABLE OF RATES

Last of Offices now open for the receipt of Messages with the number of Rates (or Rupees) chargeable for a Message of Sixteen Words, according to Geographical Distances of 100 Miles

FOURTEENTH BOMBAY MORTUARY REPORT

BEING FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING 1ST FEBRUARY 1861

THE Returns of the past year show a somewhat higher rate of mortality than usual. Examinee of the Still-born, 18,465 deaths have occurred, viz 8,419, males, and 9,946 females. The excess of male over female deaths is unusually large, being in the ratio of 1294 males to 100 females, while the average ratio is but 124. The fluctuations in the ratio are, however very great, and seem difficult to be accounted for even on the supposition that the difference is chiefly owing to the changes in the floating population

2. The deaths from Cholera were 1,251 about half the average number Of these, 1,091 occurred in the two last months of the statistical year, December and January The disease appears to have broken out first in an epidemic form among the families in the Native Infantry lines on the Esplanade, from whence it rapidly spread to the native town. Girgaon has contributed even more than its usual high proportion of victims to this terrible scourge. The low-lying districts of Kamateepoura and Dhobee-takee come next in order

3 Small-pox, almost absent last year, has been this year excessively fatal, having carried off 1,000 persons. The average number of deaths is about 600. It raged as usual through the first six months of the year, commencing in January with 23 deaths, and ceasing or nearly so by August. With the exception of one year 1858, when there were 1,686 deaths, no such mortality from small-pox has occurred since the registration commenced. Whatever may be the cause, there appears to be a singular regularity in the reappearance of the epidemic outbreaks of small-pox the disease assuming increased activity pretty constantly every third year. The following years have been marked by a large mortality from small-pox—1850, 1852, 1855, 1858, and 1861. The victims have, as usual, been chiefly children between one month and four years of age but, unlike what has been previously observed, a sudden increase in the number of deaths occurs between the ages of 14 and 21, apparently indicating in accordance with other statistics an unusual influx of adults from other parts, probably less protected by vaccination than even the inhabitants of Bombay.

4 The mortality from Measles was 76 only, against an average of 270, making a total of epidemic diseases of 2,977 which is rather less than the average; the excess of mortality is therefore due to diseases which are not of an epidemic character.

5 Fever was said to be the cause of 7,024 deaths, and Diseases of the Nervous System of 701,—both numbers somewhat greater than usual. Diseases of the Respiratory System was fatal to 1,032 the mean of the last 15 years being 1,828. The numbers recorded under this head have been diminishing during the last ten years. Diseases of the Digestive System carried off 2,078, which is a large increase upon the mortality of the last three years, though not greatly in excess of the average. Under Cachexia and Debility 1,404 deaths were registered, which is still more than last year and nearly twice the average. Of these, 1,182 or 84 per cent. were children less than 15 days old.

6 To diseases of the Circulatory System 25 deaths are attributed in Diseases of the Urinary System 24. Child-bearing and the diseases incident thereto carried off 141 females. 12 deaths from Leprosy are recorded. 128 from Dropsy and 12 from Unknown Causes.

7 The 4 Last Deaths were 209 the largest number that have yet occurred in a single year. Of these, 9 were carriage accidents, 76 died from drowning, and 21 from falls. 21 persons were suffocated by falling earth. 24 were crushed or suffocated by falling houses and 4 were killed by the fall of masses of rock,—a total of 26—a great loss of life due to preventable causes, and for which a serious responsibility rests on the owners or managers of the property.

8 The Still-born were 827 of which were males 214, females 123 thus to every 100 females, 174 males were still-born—a large excess, yet less than that recorded last year. Of the 16,200 deaths, including the still-born 10,669 bodies were buried, 4,736 burnt, and 208 exposed to carrion birds. The place of birth of 8,148 was Bombay, of 7,962 elsewhere and of 90 it was unknown. 1,985 written reports were received, or 12 per cent. of the whole.

9 From the Meteorological Observations it appears that the year was in some respects exceptional. The barometric pressure varied little from the annual mean, but the mean temperature was only 74° 1' against an average of 80° 2'. The mean dew-point was also lower than usual, being 71° 8' though the degree of saturation of the atmosphere at the recorded temperature, or the percentage of humidity was the same as usual, viz 76 per cent. The wind blew from the sea a mean of 30½ hours, or three quarters of an hour more than the average, and from the land 34 hours. The rain-fall at Colaba was 76 inches on 97 days, the average being 70 inches on 99 days. The rain-fall at Byculla, which is almost always considerably in excess of that at Colaba was 106 inches of rain on 94 days. The average rain-fall at Byculla is about 85 inches. The year was in fact an unusually wet one, which partly accounts for the mean annual temperature being lower.

10. If we omit the first year of registration, 1848, as the Returns may be supposed to be then somewhat incomplete, and compare the next six years from 1849 to 1854, with the following six 1855 to 1860, we shall find that the mean annual mortality in the first period is 14,606 and in the second 15,019 an increase of only 8 per cent. But the proportion of deaths which occur in the different localities is not exactly the same. In the following districts a decided increase has taken place — Girgaon, Kamateepoor, Mazagon Colaba, Dhobee-talan, Wankeshwar Mahaluxmee In the following a decrease — Fort Market, Kharsatula, Parrell, Seo, Mahum, Water Division This accords on the whole with what may be supposed to be the general movement of the population. Kamateepoor and Mazagon have been getting more and more thickly populated and also the hill districts of Wankeshwar and Mahaluxmee. The signs of increased population in Girgaon are not so marked, and the greater mortality is probably due in great part to the increasing insalubrity of the district. On the other hand the diminished mortality in the Fort is perhaps attributable to the removal elsewhere of the residence of many whose offices are within the walls the increasing value of house-room compelling them to seek other dwellings. Efforts have been made during the last two years to improve the drainage of Kamateepoor, but these have hitherto little effect in diminishing the mortality in fact the deaths during the past year are by far more numerous than in any previous year. The whole district lies so low being below high water mark of spring tides that the most complete system of local drainage is insufficient, without a properly constructed low level sewer into which the local drains may discharge themselves. It is to be feared that unless steps are soon taken to supply this want, this district, tenanted by a rapidly increasing population of not the cleanest habits, may become a very focus of epidemic disease. The large tannery in this neighbourhood, and the fetid open ditches which are gorged with the refuse matter apparently flowing therefrom contribute not a little to the offensive emanations which render it so unpleasant a task to pass through the district.

11. Tables are published which are capable of conveying a large amount of information in a few of these particulars. They record the yearly fluctuations in the mortality whether from epidemic or non-epidemic causes, distinguishing the cause or race the sex the age the month of the year the occupation and the place of residence. But these are little more than naked facts. It is extremely hazardous to attempt to draw from them any but the very simplest deductions. In fact, all the important conclusions to be derived from statistics of population cannot be touched, such as — the duration of life in the several castes or races, sexes, occupations, and localities, and its variation from time to time with the altered circumstances of the place. The practical conclusions deduced from a knowledge of these latter facts would be of the highest utility in suggesting means for ameliorating the health of the crowded population of this town, and diminishing the mortality.

12. The element wanting to this end is a systematic enumeration of the population — a Census. It will be remembered that an attempt to take a census of the inhabitants of Bombay was made in the year 1849. The reported population was then 568,114 but from imperfections in the method employed and from the internal evidence furnished by the detailed results, it is believed that very little confidence can be placed in the enumeration then made. A repetition of the census on a better plan has been frequently urged by the originator of these Tables, Dr Leish. The following passages may be adduced from previous Mortuary Reports —

Six years of the Registration of the Deaths in Bombay are now completed, and the information gathered has been duly arranged, as was proposed in anticipation of a census, which it was hoped would render the facts being accumulated truly valuable. At present these Mortuary Tables can be turned to only very limited use, and they are somewhat like what a Surveyor's system of triangulation would be without a measured base line. It is greatly to be desired that measures may be adopted to render the approaching Census of the Island correct, for it is better to be without a Return of the population than to have one so inaccurate as that of 1849. Without a legal enactment such as is had recourse to in Britain, to render the giving the requisite information compulsory on the inhabitants, is seems almost impossible that a correct enumeration of the people can be made for without such compulsion, with a population so large as to yield 14,000 dead a year so diversified in race, and so little likely to give active aid in the work, although disposed to be passive, as this community is known to be, a very large establishment of enumerators would be required and setting aside the very heavy expense of their maintenance, it would be difficult to find a sufficient number of men available, and otherwise qualified for the work."—From the Report for 1854.

"The time for another Census is near and I would with due respect state, that from the utter failure of the two former attempts at an enumeration of the people, I am of opinion that it is impracticable to take a correct Census in Bombay by other means than those that are used in Britain and there does not appear to be any valid reason why a legal enactment should not be had recourse to here, to obtain from the people that information which it is for the people's good to collect, which is necessary to allow of sanitary measures being undertaken with confidence, and which the Government of every civilized country has or ought to possess. There is not among the natives of this place, as those who have local experience well know any religious objection to afford all the usual information connected with Vital or Mortuary statistics, such as those at a distance are too apt to imagine may exist."—From the Report for 1854.

13 I cannot but adopt without reserve these statements and suggestions, and I would respectfully urge, as a preliminary measure, the passing of an Act of the Legislative Council rendering it compulsory on every householder to give the requisite information and authorising the infliction of a penalty for the wilfully giving a false return.

14 It can scarcely admit of a doubt, that during the last twelve years the population has received a great accession the streets are more crowded the signs of commercial activity are everywhere more conspicuous, many spaces then vacant are now built over yet it is not a little remarkable in how trifling a degree the mortality has increased. The probability certainly is that in proportion to the population the health of the town is better now than it was twelve years ago. If this change is to be at all attributed to the partial improvements which have been effected in the drainage, to the establishment of dispensaries, and to a few other hygienic measures,—the most sanguine hopes may be entertained of the effects of carrying out a complete system of drainage for the whole town, such as that recently proposed and the speedy adoption of so eminently desirable a step cannot be too strongly urged. Thus completed, and the population of each district enumerated and classified, the comparative healthiness of the several districts will be at once seen, and an unfavorable return will be the immediate signal for further sanitary improvements.

15 From the advantages which this town already possesses, its favorable insular situation, its pure and invigorating sea breeze, its copious and excellent water supply and the abundance of open space for air and recreation which it now affords, and it is to be hoped may long continue to afford,—when the streets are widened, and the water supply rendered more accessible to all, and when a thorough house drainage and an effective sewerage system shall have been established,—there is no reason why Bombay should not rank among the very healthiest of tropical cities.

I That Callipers shall from time to time be submitted to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and, if found correct, shall be branded with a Stamp bearing the name of the Chamber to indicate the same.

II That if, from use or otherwise any Callipers should get out of order and be objected to the party objecting shall send the Callipers to the Chamber for examination and should the objection be valid the Chamber Stamp shall be defaced by the Secretary if however, the objection is found to be groundless, the Secretary shall give a note to that effect, and the party objecting shall be bound by his decision.

III That any Callipers found incorrect, and on which the Stamp has been defaced, may be re-stamped after adjustment.

IV That no measurements shall be held good, except such as are taken by Callipers bearing the Chamber's Stamp.

V That Cotton, Hemp Wool, and other screwed Bales, shall be measured as follows, namely the greatest length to be first ascertained and then the Bale to be cut on either end, as the Shipmaster may wish, and cross measurements to be taken at top over the lashing, excluding the knots and as near the centre of the Bale as possible. That an average of 100 Bales be struck by ascertaining the actual measurement of any 10 Bales, and proportionately the Shipper selecting and measuring one half, and the Shipmaster the other half about a, however any dispute or difficulty arise in the selection of Bales, either party to have the option of measuring the whole quantity.

VI That all produce subject to measurement be measured within the day on which it has been ordered to be screwed, provided the order has been given by the Shipmaster or Agents of the Vessel and that from 1st June to 15th October the same be measured at the Berths: during the remainder of the year if required on the Border voucher permitting. The Austrian Lloyd's Steam Packets leave Triest direct for Alexandria on the 2nd, 12th, 22nd and 30th of every month at 10 o'clock in the morning in connection with the Peninsular and Oriental Company's line of Steamers to and from Bombay and Calcutta.

The return voyage takes place from Alexandria direct to Triest, immediately after the arrival of the Bombay and Calcutta Mails and passengers from them.

Passes who engage passage in India thereby secure priority in the choice of convenient dates.

Passengers have a great choice of Routes from Triest to London, at an expense varying from £15 to £18, inclusive of Hotel Charges, &c &c.

To travellers who proceed through the Continent without unnecessary stoppages, the following is the expense of the journey from Bombay to London:—

Bombay to Rome	£7 5
Rome to Triest through Egypt by Rail	1
Alexandria to Triest	10
Triest to London	10

Of these expenses all except the portion from Trieste to London may be paid in Bombay. Under arrangements recently made with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, such baggage as Passengers proceeding to England via Trieste may not wish to carry with them across the Continent, will be forwarded to Southampton by the A. L. S. N. Co. & Agent at Alexandria, per P. and O. Company's Steamers, at a charge of 10s. per cwt. Except there is a Plague or Cholera in Egypt, Passengers land at Trieste without detention for Quarantine.

The fares between Trieste and Alexandria are the following viz:—

1st Class £16, 2nd Class £11

Children under 10 years half fare; under 2 free.—Bath, Provisions and Wines are included in the above rates.

Baggage.—First Class passengers are allowed 200 lbs., Second Class 150 lbs., free of freight.

All heavy baggage not required for the Overland Route may be delivered to the Austrian Lloyd's Agents in London, Bona or Alexandria for shipment via Southampton.

The direct passage occupies about 4½ to 5 days and on reaching Trieste, passengers receive free pastique, provided the vessel has a clean bill of health.

An experienced surgeon on board of each vessel.

Passports are not particularly required at Alexandria and every facility is offered at Trieste by the Police and Customs House Officers.

The probable cost of a passage between Trieste and London for a First Class Passenger is as follows:—

Via Vienna, Dresden, Cologne and Ostend...	£13
“ Italy, Switzerland and Boulogne	8
And for a Second Class Passenger by the first route	9
Do. do. by the second route	7

Besides the direct communication there is an indirect line between Trieste and Alexandria once every fortnight via Smyrna and once every fortnight via Syria.

ABOUT FIFTY OTHER AGENCIES AT UP-COUNTRY STATIONS.

SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY

In proof of this it may be mentioned that the Indian Branch alone has in less than nine years issued Policies insuring Rs 3 95 2 735 nearly Four Millions Sterling

The Directors feel it unnecessary to add one word to these figures. That this Company should in so short a time with out any claim whatever the support of the public has proved that arising from a simple statement of fact has raised itself to the highest position amongst the life offices of India is sufficient evidence that the Indian Branch has fully appreciated the motives which led to the establishment of the Indian Branch of this Company as set forth in the introductory announcement contained in the original Prospectus.

SECURITY

The Capital of the ALFALFA MEDICAL AND FAMILY ENDOWMENT is £500 000 subscribed by a numerous and influential body of Proprietors.

The Funds exceed £450 000 Sterling the Annual Revenue from Premiums £350 000, which is increasing at the rate of about DATA.

The circumstances under which the Premiums for India were computed are these —

Under authority from the Court of Directors the Honorable East India Company in September 1817 the Assurance was permitted to examine the records of the Honorable East India Company view to the completion of a Report on the state of the Bengal Military Fund the rate of Premium for this Company has been computed from the data thereby afforded and from the Company's own subsequent experience Other Life Assurance Companies have not enjoyed similar advantages in this respect.

THE PROFITS

Are divisible every three years a proportion equal to five per cent of the whole profits being at the option of the Assured, payable in whole or added to the Policy or applied in reduction of future Premiums.

GUARANTEE DEPARTMENT

In this department the Company guarantees the fidelity of individual filling or about to fill, situations of trust where security is required for integrity and when a Life Assurance is combined with such Guarantee a considerable reduction is made in the premium paid for the latter

It is a well known fact that prior to the substitution of Public Guarantees for private security ships, many persons of unimpeachable character were excluded from the advantages of confidential situations, solely upon the ground of their inability to provide the required and indispensable security. Public Guarantee is therefore especially applicable to individuals thus circumstanced as the cost of the guarantee forms but a very trifling item of expense when compared with the great advantage thereby afforded, and the security to employers by this system of guarantee is unquestionably more complete.

In cases where private sureties are still preferred or rendered necessary by the constitution of certain public bodies, such sureties can be indemnified from all liability by the policies of this Company.

As the scale of Premium varies according to the nature of the situation and the duties to be performed, reference must be made to the Office for quotation of the Premium to be paid in each particular case.

The Company's arrangements for the extension of the Guarantee System to India are not yet matured but in the meantime proposals will be received and forwarded to London.

ASSURANCE OF DISABILITY.

The Directors of the Indian Branch have at present no authority to issue Policies on Invalid Life but proposals for assurances of this character will be received for transmission to the Company's Office in London, and the decision thereon communicated to applicants with all possible expedition.

INSURANCE.

The extension of the Life Assurance Department to the Parsi community is now receiving the serious attention of the London Directors. In the meantime proposals on the Life of respectable Parsis will be received, and (for the present) forwarded to the Head Office for consideration.

LOANS.

The Directors are prepared to lend on liberal terms on mortgage of property in Calcutta and on the security of Government Paper and Bank of Bengal Shares a preference being given to parties introducing Policies to the Office.

THE GENERAL ADVANTAGES

afforded by this company and not already noticed, may be briefly enumerated as follows:—

Policies issued for any amount, from Rs. 500 to Rs. 25,000.

Policies held by parties in their own lives indisputable on any ground whatever except fraud or mispayment of the premiums, but subject to a return during the period of twelve months from the date in the event of the life assured dying by his own hands or during it by the hands of others.

Assignment of Policies recorded without charge and from the date of such recording the assignee is not subject to forfeiture on any ground whatever except fraud or non-payment of the due premiums.

Age estimated on the Policies in all cases where satisfactory proof is given.

Assurances may be renewed within six months of the date on which the premium became due, on an satisfactory proof of health and payment of underwritten sum.

Policies on which three annual premiums have been paid purchased at a fair value.

The Assets of the Insurance Office will be added on the security of Policies on which at least six years' premiums have been paid.

Grants are charged on the lives of military officers holding civil appointments for the term of six years.

Immediate reduction to English rates on the assured proceeding to Europe or any other part of the world which the Directors may consider equally healthy whether for a permanent or temporary residence.

Claims paid three months after proof of death, or the Directors will receive applications to discontinue immediately after each proof if preferred.

Policies may at the time of being effected, be made payable in London at the rate of Two Shillings sterling per Rupee.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

In addition to the above, the following is a summary of what are more particularly the

ADVANTAGES TO EUROPEAN RESIDENTS IN INDIA

Notwithstanding the material modifications which have been made in the terms of other Offices since this Company came into operation in India, the rates of premium will be found generally lower than those of any other Company and particularly favorable for military men.

There is no charge for Entry Money Policies or Stamps.

Premiums may be paid in one sum or by yearly half-yearly quarterly or monthly payments.

And the Directors shall in all instances be at full liberty to reject any such application without assigning any reason to the applicant for so doing.

17th — In all cases it shall rest with the Committee to judge whether with reference to the circumstances of situation and distance the interval which may have elapsed between the date of any Certificate and Declaration of Health and the time of their presentation be reasonable or otherwise and to admit or reject such Certificate and Declaration accordingly. In no case however is the party subscribing to have any claim on the Fund of the late Society in the event of his lapsing before the date of the certificate and the date on which the applicant may be admitted a Member unless where the Directors may at the instance of such applicant have originally permitted the withdrawal to take effect from the date of the Certificate and Declaration of Health which it shall at all times be in their discretion to do on the arrears of subscription being paid up. ADVERTISEMENTS representatives shall be entitled to receive back any part of the subscription money so paid up which would not have been due at the time of the lapse taking place, forfeiting however to the Society all interest which may have intermediately accrued thereon.

21st — No subsequent increase of shares on any life shall be allowed except on fresh application, to be again approved of by the Directors and accompanied by a Certificate and Declaration as above. The subscription on the additional shares to be according to the age of the party at the time of making the new application.

22nd — Any Member desiring to transfer his interest in any share or shares which he may hold in the Society shall be at liberty to do so by an endorsement to be written on the original Certificate, which endorsement shall not be valid until the Certificate bearing the same shall have been produced to the Secretaries and the transfer duly registered by them in a general book of registry to be kept in the office of the Society.

24th — The person whose interest is limited by the lapse of a life in the Society shall in his last application to the Secretaries in writing accompanied by such proof of the continuance of his interest as may be a majority of the Directors receive dividends as follows:—At or after the expiration of the first year from the commencement of the Society at the rate of one thousand rupees on each share and also after the expiration of the second year from the commencement of the Society at the rate of one thousand rupees on each share and at or after the expiration of the third year from the commencement of the Society at the rate of two thousand rupees on each share which he or they may have sold or be entitled to on the agreed life provided that in the opinion of the Directors the state of the Funds of the Society will admit of so large payments being made. Should the Directors think however that the Funds will not allow of immediate payments of these amounts then such sum or sums only shall be advanced as they may deem proper and the balance of the proscribed advance or advances shall be paid so soon as the Directors shall be of opinion that the Funds will safely admit of it.

25th — Arrears of subscription on or any other sum due to the Society by the holders of a share or shares on a lapsed life shall be deducted from the amount of the advance.

26th — At the expiration of the Society on the 31st December 1863 it is proposed that a new Society on a similar plan but subject to such alterations as experience may suggest, shall be immediately instituted, into which Society all Members then holding shares on unexpired lives in the Seventh Laudable Society shall be at liberty to transfer those shares without any renewed Certificate of Health in consideration of a sum of money to be paid to such new Society out of the Funds of the Seventh Laudable Society and without taking into account any proportion of the advances previously paid by the Society on account of the lapsed lives. To entitle Members of the Seventh Laudable Society to transfer the shares held by them into the ensuing or Eighth Laudable Society no regular form of application shall be neces-

every but a Certificate of Admission into the new Society shall be immediately issued to them on the simple payment of the usual half year's subscription in advance subject however to the established penalty of two per cent in the event of the payment being delayed beyond the term of one month from the commencement of the new Society, and to the entire forfeiture of the privilege of transfer (excepting on a new application to the Directors accompanied by the regular Certificate of Health &c.) if not made good within the second month from that period. The rates of subscription for members transferring their shares from the Seventh to the Eighth Laudable Society shall be according to the respective ages of the parties on whose lives the shares are held on the 1st January 1864.

27th — It is proposed to render the institution of the Laudable Society permanent by establishing a new Society in succession to each Society as it expires.

28th — Upon the transfer to the Eighth Laudable Society of any share or shares in the Seventh Laudable Society which may stand assigned, by endorsement or otherwise in the benefit of any other person or persons than the person or persons originally interested therein or upon any subsequent transfer of any share or shares so assigned from the Eighth or any succeeding Society to the Society next ensuing, such share or shares shall continue in all respects subject to the lien of the Assignee and shall be declared to stand for the benefit of such Assignee in the Certificate of Admission to be issued from the new Society.

29th — Within one month and fifteen days after its institution the Accounts of the Seventh Laudable Society shall be made up and the balance of Funds actually on hand after deducting for the new Society 12 per cent, on the amount of subscription received during the term of the Society be divided by the number of lives held on lives subscribed upon in the Society which may have lapsed between its commencement and its close and the parties entitled to benefit by such lapses shall each receive his or their proportion of the said funds according to the number of shares respectively held by them on the several lapsed lives the holders of half quarter of eighth shares divided according to those fractional proportions. The sum of Rupees 10 000 shall be considered as the maximum payable on any one lapsed share and any surplus shall be carried to the credit of the new Society.

30th — With respect to any lapses of lives in this Society which may not be ascertained on or prior to the 1st of February 1864, such lapses shall be at the risk of the next ensuing or Eighth Laudable Society and the advances of Dividends to which the parties claiming to benefit by such lapses may be entitled shall be paid out of the funds and agreeably to the Regulations of the said ensuing Society on the lapses being ascertained but it is hereby expressly provided that notice of such lapses accompanied by satisfactory proof of the same must be given to the Secretaries of the Eighth Laudable Society within one year from the expiration of the Seventh Society on the 31st December 1863 and that in the event of the party or parties interested neglecting to prefer his or their claim on account of any such lapse within the period here prescribed he or they shall entirely forfeit all right and title to any benefit whatever by reason of such lapse from the funds of the Eighth or any succeeding Society.

31st — In the event of the party insured proceeding on Field or War Service an additional half yearly subscription of Two hundred and fifty Rupees per share shall be charged from the date of his departure to continue until his return, the non payment of which in advance, will subject the holder to the forfeiture of his share.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Any mis statement in the Declaration of Health makes the Policy void as does suicide, in cases when a person effects an Insurance on his own life (unless the Certificate be specially endorsed over for the benefit of a Creditor or Creditors and duly registered) but not so in case of Creditors effecting an Insurance on the lives of their debtors

BOMBAY TRACT AND BOOK SOCIETY.

THE Depository of this Society is situated on the verge of the Esplanade. The building was erected in 1856, by special funds contributed for the purpose by the liberality of Christian friends in this Presidency. This Society has been in existence since 1837. Its objects are 1stly to obtain and circulate the publications of the Religious Tract Society, London, and other suitable English publications. 2ndly and chiefly to prepare and circulate Christian tracts and books (composed on Evangelical principles, excluding those minor points on which Christians may conscientiously differ) and adapted to the wants of the native mind in Western India and the adjacent countries.

Upwards of 250 books and tracts in the various languages of this presidency setting forth the great truths that are essential to salvation have been prepared and published. In twelve years 1850-61 the number of copies of vernacular publications issued from the Depository amounted to 683,547.

A price is put upon the vernacular tracts, a mere trifle compared with their cost, but sufficient to ensure in most instances, their preservation. This system, carried on for many years, has been found to be far more satisfactory than the plan of gratuitous distribution.

The rent of the upper stories of the Depository building is sufficient to defray the expenses of establishment and other incidental expenses. The money contributed to the Society is all applied in the production, printing and circulating of tracts among the natives.

Supplies of English tracts for the use of soldiers and others are available. The proceeds of the small vernacular tracts, when sold by colporteurs, may be applied in payment of their salaries.

Contributors are at liberty to take tracts to the amount of one-fourth of their contributions gratis.

The publications of the Religious Tract Society are sold at first cost. The Sunday at Home Leisure Hour British Messenger British Workman, and other English religious periodicals are supplied.

The stock of English publications on hand embraces books for the young, for children, for the youngest readers, for adults, the monthly volumes, educational works, picture books; children's tracts, history, biography, daily text and devotional books, standard commentaries on the Bible, sailors, servants and factory libraries, &c. &c.

The excellent publications of the Christian Vernacular Education Society, both English and Marathi, are always on hand.

Books and tracts are to be had in the following languages: Marathi, Gujarati, Portuguese, Hindustani, Hindee, Urdu, Bengali, Arabic, Tamil, Telugoo, Canarese, Malayalam, also in the languages of continental Europe.

Reports and Catalogues will be cheerfully furnished to all who make application at the Depository.

GAS APPARATUS for Private Use, Factories, Towns,

STEAM ENGINES, Boilers and Castings

MR BOWER of St Neots, Huntingdonshire, is the manufacturer of Gas Apparatus of all dimensions. He has in stock the plant for all sizes from 20 up to 200 lights, and he will deliver an order within one month from receipt of it. Testimonials and references to a selected list of 100 out of a great number of Gas Works erected by him in England and various parts of Europe together with calculations of the cost of gas, specifications price lists, and other particulars will be forwarded on application.

With coal at 50s. per ton gas may be manufactured where 50 lights are required burning for eight or 100 for four hours per day at 8s. per 1 000 cubic feet; the price of this apparatus is 185s. With 500 lights burning eight, or 1 000 burning for four hours per day at 5s. 6d. per 1 000 cubic feet the price of this apparatus is 640s. Delivery free in London inclusive of packing and cases. These estimates of cost of gas allow for wear and tear—five per cent. for capital and three per cent. for renewing plant when worn out. The pipe, with fittings for factory use, may be taken to cost an average of 1s. per light foot in London.

Although coal is the best material for gas making yet it may be made from cotton or other seed, peat, bark, wood, oil—in fact anything that will burn with a flame.

Mr Bower supplies cast iron pipe, lamp columns, and brackets, wrought and composition tube meters, and gas fittings in general.

In ordering it will be well to give a plan to scale of the factory or house, showing the positions assigned for the gas works and of the lights. It is also necessary to state the longest time the lights will be burning per night.

Instructions for fixing and plans, &c. forwarded with the bills of lading.

Plans, specifications, and estimates, prepared for the lighting of towns and cities.

Mr Bower manufactures Steam Engines, vertical and horizontal, fixed and portable and executes mechanical engineering work in general equal to any house both as regards price and workmanship. Boilers—Cornish and tubular—of the best plate and pressed to a high pressure. Tanks, girders, and other wrought iron work. Castings of all kinds from drawings, and at moderate prices.

Terms.—Credit 31 to four months by the acceptance of a first-class house in England, or 2½ per cent. discount for cash against bill of lading on presentation to a London banker.
